AFFIDAVIT IN OPPOSITION TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

#39 8/5 #63

FILE NO.: 0017/2008

STATE OF NEW YORK	)
COUNTY OF	) ss.: )

ORLY GENGER, being duly sworn deposes and says:

- 1. I am Petitioner in the above-captioned matter and familiar with all the facts recited herein. I submit this affidavit in opposition to Respondent's Cross-Motion to Dismiss my Verified Petition dated June 22, 2009 (the "Petition") (i) seeking removal of Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust (the "Orly Trust"); (ii) surcharging Respondent in the amount of the loss of the value of my interest in TPR Investment Associates Inc. ("TPR"), a closely held family-owned operation and (iii) awarding me costs and attorneys' fees. A copy of the Petition is annexed as Exhibit A. Respondent, prior to filing a Verified Answer, is seeking dismissal of the Petition claiming I allegedly failed to join the Sagi Genger 1993 Trust (the "Sagi Trust") as an interested party and because I allegedly failed to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted. My lawyers have advised me that Respondent's papers are insufficient for the Court to grant dismissal.
- 2. Respondent's motion is nothing more than a transparent attempt to delay discovery and ultimately the trial of this matter. If my mother was truly concerned about my well-being she would not be refusing to submit to the jurisdiction of the Court or deliberately delaying my ability to obtain the discovery required to try this case. My mother's lack of response to the Petition is further evidence of how desperately I need to have her removed as my Trustee. My attorneys have advised me that discovery will likely be stayed until the Surrogate rules on Respondent's motion. On July 1, 2009, a hearing was held before Surrogate Troy K. Webber. My counsel, Respondent's counsel, Robert A. Meister, Esq., and I were present, but my mother, the Respondent, did not appear—another example of Respondent spurning her responsibility as my Trustee. The Court recognized that factual issues were in dispute between the parties, that there was an immediate need for discovery and ultimately a trial of the issues presented in my Verified Petition. (A certified copy of the court transcript is annexed as Exhibit B. See, page 20, lines 19-21; page 28, lines 21-23; page 29, lines 3-7).

- During oral argument, Mr. Meister asserted that (a) the Orly Trust has no interest in TPR and as a result Respondent could not have breached her fiduciary duty, (b) Respondent, as Trustee, could not have prevented the dimunition of the Orly Trust's interest in TPR and (c) Respondent, as Trustee had no standing to prevent the sale of the Sagi Trust's 19.43% interest in TRI to the Trump Group. Neither Mr. Meister nor Respondent (since she was not present) offered any sworn testimony or documentary evidence in response to my Petition. Because Respondent's position was in direct conflict with mine, Judge Webber set dates for responsive pleadings to be filed and a discovery schedule which required all notices to be served by August 20, 2009. (See Exhibit B page 30, lines 14-16).
- 4. Respondent, in the dismissal motion, has taken the same exact position that Mr. Meister raised at the July 1st court appearance despite the fact that the Court has already opined on these issues and confirmed that discovery is necessary before any rulings and determinations can be made. Moreover, Respondent's application is supported solely by Mr. Meister's affirmation which contains facts of which he has no personal knowledge. Only Respondent or another party with first hand knowledge of pertinent events can provide support for this motion. Because Respondent's motion fails to provide one scintilla of evidence refuting the allegations set forth in my Verified Petition, Respondent's motion, as will be demonstrated in my Affidavit, the Affidavit of Judith E. Siegel-Baum, Esq. and the Memorandum of Law must be denied.

DISPUTED FACTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES COMPEL THE DISMISSAL OF RESPONDENT'S MOTION<sup>1</sup>

A. Respondent's Claim That The Orly Trust Did Not Have An Interest In TPR Is False

5. D & K, a family-owned limited partnership in which the Orly Trust has a 48% interest, purchased 240 shares of common stock (constituting 49% of the outstanding shares) in TPR for $10,200,000. The purchase price of the TPR shares was satisfied as follows: (a) the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust each paid $600,000; (b) Respondent paid $50,000; and (c) Respondent, as general partner of D & K, executed a recourse $8,950,000 Promissory Note dated December 21, 1993 (the "Note") to satisfy the balance. (A copy of the Note is attached to the Petition which is annexed as Exhibit A). Therefore, as a result of D & K's purchase of TPR stock, each trust acquired a 23.52% indirect interest in TPR and Respondent acquired a 1.96% indirect interest in TPR. Accordingly, Respondent's position is wrong and a deliberate attempt to mislead the Court. The Orly Trust had, and still has, an indirect interest in TPR and thus Respondent, as my Trustee, has a fiduciary duty to manage the asset.

B. Respondent's Claim That The Factual Basis For The Petition Was Premised Upon Events That Occurred Prior To Respondent's Appointment As Trustee Is False

- 6. Contrary to the position taken by Respondent, the factual basis for the Petition is predicated upon documentary proof provided to my current counsel by Mr. Meister in June 2009 not upon facts set forth in my February 2008 application seeking to have my mother removed as Trustee (the "February 2008 Removal Application"). In January 2008, my mother was appointed successor Trustee of the Orly Trust and in February 2008 I filed the February 2008 Removal Application. I was, and still am, fearful that my mother will not protect my interests while serving as Trustee because of my mother's ongoing deference to my brother, Sagi, and his interests. In response to the February 2008 Removal Application, Surrogate Roth held that my motion was premature, in that my mother should be given an opportunity to act as Trustee. Instead Surrogate Roth suggested that I commence an SCPA §2201 proceeding to obtain evidence necessary to support a future application to have my mother removed.
- 7. Pursuant to Surrogate Roth's suggestion, my attorneys sent Respondent a letter dated May 14, 2009 seeking production of documents related to the Orly Trust's direct and indirect interest in various assets including D & K, D & K GP, TPR and TRI. On June 1, 2009, Mr. Meister responded by informing my attorneys that the Orly Trust no longer owned any interest in TPR. I was advised that TPR purportedly foreclosed on the Note and sold the pledged shares back to TPR for $2,200,000. Mr. Meister provided my counsel with the following documents, all of which are clearly dated after the appointment of my mother as Trustee and the February 2008 Removal Application: (a) a memo dated August 31, 2008, from Sagi, the CEO of TPR, to Sagi, the general manager of D & K, demanding repayment of the Note and threatening the sale of 240 TPR shares pledged as collateral (a copy of the memo is attached to the Petition which is annexed as Exhibit A); (b) a memo from TPR to D & K announcing the time and date for the public auction of the TPR shares (a copy of the memo is attached to the Petition which is annexed as Exhibit A); and (c) a certificate of sale dated February 27, 2009 evidencing the foreclosure on the Note and the sale of the pledged shares back to TPR for $2,200,000 (a copy of the certificate of sale is attached to the Petition which is annexed as Exhibit A).

- Respondent owes me, as beneficiary of the Orly Trust, an undiluted fiduciary duty to monitor, manage, maintain and protect the Orly Trust's assets, including the Orly Trust's ownership interest in TPR from challenge or diminution in value. The lack of action by Respondent in the face of the auction is evidence that Respondent breached her fiduciary duty. In fact, to date, with the sale documents in hand, Respondent has failed to take any action. Thus, Respondent breached her fiduciary duties to me by: (a) failing to inform me of TPR's foreclosure on the Note and the sale of the pledged shares, which completely divested the Orly Trust of its 23.52% interest in TPR; (b) failing to take any action to protect or defend the Orly Trust's interest in TPR; (c) failing to apprise me of all activity concerning the Orly Trust and to ensure that I received proper notification of the default and auction; and (d) failing to take any actions to protect the Orly Trust's interest in TRI.
- 9. Documentary evidence, provided to me by my mother's counsel Mr. Meister proves that a diminution of the Orly Trust's assets occurred in February 2009 while my mother was serving as Trustee.
- 10. My mother, for reasons that appear to be self-dealing, will not voluntarily remove herself as Trustee, and has brought this motion to further delay discovery and trial. My mother, following her divorce from my father, ceded control the following assets which she received as part of the divorce to Sagi: her 4% interest in D & K and her 51% interest in TPR. Sagi's dual control over both TPR and D & K directly conflicts with Sagi's fiduciary duties to D & K's limited partners, which include the Orly Trust. Sagi used his dual position at D & K and TPR to engage in self-dealing in connection with the Note. This self –dealing, which was orchestrated by my mother, has damaged my trust and caused Respondent to breach her fiduciary duties. It is clear that Respondent and Sagi engaged in a scheme, using TPR and D & K to fraudulently divest D & K of its ownership interest in TPR, thereby depriving the Orly Trust of its ownership interest in TPR, to my detriment. In order to further her scheme with Sagi, it is clear to me that my mother will never voluntarily remove herself as my Trustee.

C. Respondent's Counsel, Who Has No Personal Knowledge Of Fact, Incorrectly Concluded That Respondent Had No Control Over The Sale of The Orly Trust's Interest in TPR

11. Despite the erroneous conclusions drawn by Mr. Meister, evidence exists which demonstrates that Respondent had knowledge, as early as August 31, 2008, during her tenure as Trustee of the Orly Trust, of Sagi's plan to foreclose on the Note. Upon learning of the actions to be taken by Sagi, Respondent should have immediately objected and taken action to prevent the declaration of default or subsequent sale. Respondent knew that the Orly Trust had a financial interest in the Note. At all relevant times, Respondent knew my address and other contact information but never notified me of the impending foreclosure and auction. As part of my parents' divorce, Respondent received a controlling block of TPR shares. On October 30, 2004, Respondent entered into a shareholder agreement with TPR concerning the future management of the company. Respondent named herself as one of two TPR board members. Sagi, using managerial control afforded to him by the TPR shareholder agreement, awarded himself the other board seat. Although Respondent has intimated that she has divested herself of her controlling interest in TPR, (although no documentary proof has been supplied) she has never offered any sworn testimony or documentary proof indicating that she relinquished her seat on TPR's board of directors. Clearly, this is an issue that needs to be explored through discovery.

12. Moreover, Respondent, like the entire Genger family, knew the Note was never intended to be enforced. In keeping with my parents' estate planning goals every member of the Genger family understood and agreed before the time of their execution that the Note would never be enforced by any of them. Consistent with this knowledge, on February 14, 2007, Respondent admitted in a sworn statement to the Court that no one was ever supposed to foreclose on the Note. (Respondent's sworn statement is attached to the Petition which is annexed as Exhibit A). Additionally, the unpaid Note was the subject of a post-judgment arbitration proceeding between Respondent and my father which took place in September 2007. Respondent, who was present at the proceedings, heard Sagi and Mr. Parnes testify that the Note should not be enforced and that Sagi, as CEO of TPR, had no intention of collecting the unpaid portion of the Note. Upon receiving notice of Sagi's motives, Respondent should have immediately taken action to preserve the sanctity of her and my father's estate planning goals or sought court guidance.

D. Respondent's Counsel, Who Has No Personal Knowledge of The Underlying Fact, Incorrectly Concluded That Respondent Was Not A Party To the Sagi Trusts' Sale Of TRI Stock

13. In paragraph 7 of Mr. Mesiter's Affirmation (which is undated), he states that because Respondent was never appointed Trustee of the Sagi Trust and the Orly Trust was not a party to the Sagi Trust's sale of TRI shares there is no basis in law for removing or surcharging Respondent. In essence, Mr. Meister is alleging that there would have been no way for Respondent to have knowledge of the Sagi Trust's sale of the TRI shares. This statement is completely disingenuous. Mr. Meister has drawn a conclusion without any factual support from Respondent or any other party with first hand knowledge. Respondent must submit herself to the inquiry of this Court.

14. What Mr. Meister fails to recognize is that my mother breached her fiduciary duties by failing to take any action to protect my interest in TRI. Immediately upon learning that the Sagi Trust sold its interest in TRI, my mother should have taken action to preserve the Orly Trust's interest in a majority block of TRI shares. My mother could have moved to reverse the sale or asserted a position in the Delaware proceeding. By doing nothing my mother caused the diminution in value of the Orly Trust's interest in TRI because the trust now owns a minority block of TRI shares rather than a controlling block of TRI shares. My mother has taken no action because she does not want to muddy the waters with Sagi—her son, with whom she is conspiring, to strip the Orly Trust of its assets.

CONCLUSION

15. Respondent's motion to dismiss must be denied in its entirety because (a) the factual allegations set forth in the Petitioner establish a cause of action for Respondent's removal as my Trustee; (b) there are questions of fact which need to be clarified through discovery and answered at trial and (c) the sole basis for Respondent's application is statements made by Respondent's counsel of which he has no personal knowledge. Accordingly, Respondent has failed to properly defend her application.

WHEREFORE, based upon the allegations contained herein, Petitioner requests that Respondent's motion to dismiss be denied and this Court provide the following relief:

(a) permanently enjoining and restraining Respondent, her agents, and all other persons acting on her behalf from withdrawing, selling, disposing, transferring, assigning, removing, pledging, redeeming, mortgaging, encumbering, liening, hypothecating, or secreting the Orly Trust's 19.43% interest in TRI and other assets remaining in the Orly Trust;

- (b) removing Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Trust for breaching her fiduciary duties, wasting and dissipating the assets of the Orly Trust, and improvidently managing and injuring the property committed to her charge;
- (c) surcharging Respondent in the amount of the loss of the value of the Orly Trust's interest in TPR as determined by the Court and awarding Petitioner her costs and attorneys' fees;
  - (d) appointing Michael D. Grohman, Esq., as successor trustee;
  - (e) waiving any requirement that I post an undertaking; and
  - (f) granting me any other relief it deems necessary and proper.

JUDITH E. SIEGEL-BAUM, deposes and says:

I am a member of the law firm Cozen O'Connor, attorneys for Petitioner, Orly Genger, and am admitted to practice in the state of New York. I am familiar with the facts recited herein and submit this Affidavit in opposition to Respondent's, Dalia Genger, motion to dismiss the Verified Petition sworn to on June 22, 1999. (A copy of the Petition is annexed as Exhibit A). Significantly, Respondent's motion is based on nothing more than a six (6) page Notice of Motion and hearsay Affirmation of Robert A. Meister, Esq. in which conclusions are drawn with no supporting Affidavit by Respondent or Memorandum of Law. Orly Genger's Affidavit, sworn to on August 4, 2009, and this Affidavit will demonstrate that Respondent's application is fatally flawed and should be denied in its entirety.

Procedural History

- 2. This action was commenced by Petitioner, the beneficiary of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust (the "Orly Trust"), for removal of Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Trust because Respondent breached her fiduciary duties, wasted and dissipated assets of the Orly Trust and imprudently managed and injured property committed to her charge.
- 3. On July 1, 2009, a hearing was held before Surrogate Troy K. Webber at which Petitioner, Respondent's counsel, Robert A. Meister, Esq., and I were present. Respondent did not appear. During oral argument, Mr. Meister inaccurately asserted, in direct contravention to the allegations set forth in the Petition, that (a) the Orly Trust has no interest in TPR and as a result Respondent could not have breached her fiduciary duty, (b) Respondent, as Trustee, could not have prevented the dimunition of the Orly Trust's interest in TPR and (c) Respondent, as Trustee, had no standing to prevent the sale of the Sagi Genger 1993 Trust's (the "Sagi Trust") 19.43% interest in TRI to the Trump Group. Neither Mr. Meister nor Respondent (since she was not present) offered any sworn testimony or documentary evidence either supporting their allegations or in response to the Petition.
- 4. The Court recognized that there were factual issues in dispute between the parties with regard to the Orly Trust's ownership interest in TPR and stated "it's something that has to be litigated...[h]owever, we're not going to litigate it now, because I don't know. And there's nothing before me that tells me whether it is or is not." (A certified copy of the court transcript is attached as Exhibit B. See, page 28, lines 21-23 and page 29, lines 5-7). The Court recognized the need for discovery:

"Ms. Siegel-Baum: I think we have to get my removal proceeding; I think I need some discovery done.

The Court: Most definitely. Most definitely. You move for that in the order to show cause." (See Exhibit B, page 20, lines 18-21).

Moreover, the Court recognized the need for a hearing:

"Ms. Siegel-Baum: But the thing is I don't know if she wants a hearing; I have to go through a hearing.

The Court: Yes." (See Exhibit B, page 21, lines 14-17).

Webber set dates for responsive pleadings to be filed and a discovery schedule requiring discovery notices to be served by August 20, 2009. (See Exhibit B, page 30, lines 14-16). However, instead of filing a Verified Answer to the Petition, Respondent filed a motion to dismiss, but without a supporting affidavit from Respondent or anyone else with knowledge of the facts. The Petition seeks dismissal of the action for failure to name the Sagi Trust as a necessary party and for failure to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted. However, because Respondent fails to specifically state under which sub-section of CPLR §3211 he is seeking dismissal, it is difficult to truly ascertain the exact nature of the relief set forth in the motion. Notwithstanding, Respondent's claims are completely without merit because exist between the parties and because Respondent has failed to support her application with first hand knowledge of pertinent and relevant events.

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS MUST BE DENIED

- A. Under SCPA Section 711 and Section 712 the Only Indispensable Party to a Removal Proceeding is the Fiduciary
- 6. Respondent is seeking dismissal of the Petition because Petitioner failed to name the Sagi Trust, which has a contingent remainder interest in the Orly Trust, as an interested party. Respondent cites SCPA §344, a non-existent statute, in support of his position. In any event there is no basis under the SCPA for dismissal on this ground. Under SCPA §711, when a Petition to revoke letters of trusteeship is made, the Order to Show Cause or Citation shall issue to the fiduciary. The Court has discretion and may or may not direct process to issue to other interested parties. SCPA §712 specifically states "...process must be issued...to the fiduciary against whom relief is sought and to such other persons as the court may direct."

- 7. Petitioner, upon filing, required immediate relief and the Court scheduled a special hearing to address the urgent issues and expedite discovery. The Court in exercising discretion provided by statute, heard the matter without notice to the Trustee (David Parnes, who lives in Israel) of the Sagi Trust. Because there has already been an appearance on this matter, the Court demonstrably exercised its discretion and determined that the fiduciary is the only person interested in defending herself and notice to all persons interested in the estate is not required. The Court was correct.
- 8. Furthermore, even if the Court determined that the trustee of the Sagi Trust should receive service, pursuant to CPLR 3024(c) and in accordance with CPLR §3025(a), Petitioner has an automatic right to amend a pleading once without leave of court within twenty (20) days after responsive pleading is served. The purpose of CPLR §3204(c) is to enable the moving party to remedy pleadings which have been called into question by the non-moving party. As a result, even if the Court determined service on the Trustee of the Sagi Trust is mandated, Petitioner still has time to cure without leave of Court. Because there has already been an appearance on this matter, the Court has exercised its discretion and determined that the fiduciary is the only person interested in defending herself and notice to all persons interested in the estate is not required.

B. The Motion Is Patently Defective And Therefore Must Be Dismissed

- 9. The only "support" for the relief set forth in Respondent's motion to dismiss are conclusory statements made by Respondent's attorney, Mr. Meister. For example, Mr. Meister draws the following factual conclusions based upon absolutely no evidence:
  - (i) Respondent had no control over the Sagi Trust's sale of common stock of TRI. (See ¶6 of Mr. Meister's Affirmation).
  - (ii) Respondent had no control over TPR's declaring a default and foreclosing on the Note. (See ¶6 of Mr. Meister's Affirmation).
  - (iii) Respondent was not a party to the Sagi Trust's sale of TRI stock. (See ¶6 of Mr. Meister's Affirmation).
  - (iv) The Orly Trust is not a shareholder of TPR. (See ¶8 of Mr. Meister's Affirmation).

Mr. Meister's conclusory, third party statements cannot serve as a factual basis for the motion. Only Respondent, or another fact witness, can testify as to what she knew, had control over or acts she took or did not take in her capacity as fiduciary of the Orly Trust—but she didn't. Mr. Meister's Affirmation is nothing more than unsubstantiated and inadmissible hearsay. Mr. Meister's conclusory statements --which are not based on personal knowledge and information-do not permit this Court to evaluate the merits of the case and therefore her motion must fail because she has not filed any other pleadings in support of her application.

C. Because Questions of Fact Exist Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Must Be Denied

10. The Petition set forth numerous facts supported by sworn testimony and documentary proof, in favor of Respondent's removal as Trustee. The Petition sufficiently sets forth a prima facie case for removal because Respondent's breach of duty of loyalty as a Trustee have compromised the assets of the Orly Trust. Where, as here, a cause of action has been established, Respondent's motion to dismiss must be denied.

Further, this Court recognized the existence of numerous questions of law and 11. fact which must be explored through pre-trial discovery. For this very reason Respondent's preanswer motion must be denied so that each side is given an opportunity to do the necessary discovery. For example, in addition to the Orly Trust's ownership interest in TPR and Respondent and Sagi's conspiracy to diminish the value of the Orly Trust, this Court, as discussed in the Memorandum of Law, must determine whether (i) prior oral statements made by Respondent disavow the Note and/or (ii) writings exist which modify the Note. The only evidence before the Court at this time shows that Respondent and all Genger family members understood and agreed before signing the Note that the Note would never be enforced by her or by any other family member or trustees of the Orly Trust and Sagi Trust and that TPR would never seek to foreclose on the Note or repossess the pledged shares. In that regard, Sagi, acting through TPR, assigned the Note to his longtime friend David Parnes to carry out his charge of ensuring that the Note would not be enforced. It is Petitioner's position, which is supported by case law, that these prior statements act as evidence that the Note was never intended to be enforced. In addition, after the Note was signed, Respondent made sworn statements further confirming that all interested parties to the Note, including Arie, Sagi, Orly, TPR and D & K, had agreed that TPR would never seek to enforce the Note. Discovery from TPR, D & K, Respondent and Sagi must be obtained in order to determine whether other evidence exists which specifically disavow the Note.

Unless this Court permits Petitioner to conduct discovery on these issues she will be prejudiced and denied the right to prove a legal theory which is adequately alleged by the facts presented in the Petition. The Court of Appeals has opined on this issue: "[w]e accept the facts as alleged in the complaint as true, accord plaintiffs the benefit of every possible favorable inference, and determine only whether the facts as alleged fit..." Leon v. Martinez, 84 N.Y.2d 83, 638 N.E.2d 511, 614 N.Y.S.2d 972 (1994).

WHEREFORE, based upon the allegations contained herein, Petitioner requests that Respondent's motion to dismiss be denied and that this Court provide the following relief to Petitioner:

- (a) permanently enjoining and restraining Respondent, her agents, and all other persons acting on her behalf from withdrawing, selling, disposing, transferring, assigning, removing, pledging, redeeming, mortgaging, encumbering, liening, hypothecating, or secreting the Orly Trust's 19.43% interest in TRI and other assets remaining in the Orly Trust;
- (b) removing Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Trust for breaching her fiduciary duties, wasting and dissipating the assets of the Orly Trust, and improvidently managing and injuring the property committed to her charge;
- (c) surcharging Respondent in the amount of the loss of the value of the Orly Trust's interest in TPR as determined by the Court and awarding Petitioner her costs and attorneys' fees;

- (d) appointing Michael D. Grohman, Esq., as successor trustee;
- (e) waiving any requirement that I post an undertaking; and
- (f) granting me any other relief it deems necessary and proper.

----X

TO THE SURROGATE'S COURT, STATE OF NEW YORK COUNTY OF NEW YORK

Petitioner, Orly Genger ("Petitioner" or "Orly"), by her attorneys Cozen O'Connor, respectfully alleges as her Verified Petition for Removal of Dalia Genger as Trustee:

- 1. Orly, domiciled at 1965 Broadway, Apt. 22G, New York, New York 10024, is the current beneficiary of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust dated December 13, 1993 (the "Orly Trust") (annexed hereto as Exhibit A). Dalia Genger, residing at 200 East 65th Street, Apt. 32W, New York, New York 10021 ("Respondent" or "Dalia"), Orly's mother, is the current sole Trustee of the Orly Trust, and was appointed successor Trustee in January 2008.
- 2. Based upon the allegations contained herein, Petitioner requests that this Court provide the following relief:
- (a) Enjoining and restraining Respondent, her agents, and all other persons acting on her behalf from withdrawing, selling, disposing, transferring, assigning, removing, pledging, redeeming, mortgaging, encumbering, liening, hypothecating, or secreting the Orly Trust's 19.43% interest in Trans-Resources, Inc. ("TRI"), 1 a closely held corporation, founded by Arie Genger ("Arie"), Petitioner's father and Respondent's former husband, and any other assets which may be remaining in the Orly Trust. The Orly Trust's TRI shares are in imminent danger of being sold by Respondent and her son, Orly's brother, Sagi Genger ("Sagi"), for the purpose of benefiting Sagi Genger and presumably Respondent, and depleting and denuding the value of Orly's Trust;

- (b) removing Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Trust for breaching her fiduciary duties, wasting and dissipating the assets of the Orly Trust, and imprudently managing and injuring the property committed to her charge. As will be demonstrated herein, Respondent has conspired with, and participated in the diversion of trust assets to, Sagi, who underhandedly sold without any objection from Respondent, the Orly Trust's indirect interest in TPR Investment Associates Inc. ("TPR"), a closely held family-owned corporation.
- (c) surcharging Respondent in the amount of the loss of the value of Orly's interest in TPR as determined by the Court and awarding the Petitioner costs and attorneys' fees;
  - (d) appointing Michael D. Grohman, Esq., as successor trustee;
  - (e) waiving any requirement that Petitioner post an undertaking; and
  - (f) granting Petitioner such further relief deemed necessary or proper.
- 3. To assist the Court in perceiving the severity of Respondent's conduct and the urgency of the provision of extraordinary relief, the following is an overview of the facts supporting this Petition.

I. OVERVIEW

4. Arie and Dalia were married on July 23, 1967, in a ceremony held in Israel. In 2004, however, their marriage ended in divorce. Prior to 1993, at which time Dalia and Arie were married, Dalia and Arie formed D & K LP ("D & K"), a family-owned limited partnership whose name was shorthand for "Dalia and Kids." At the time of its formation, Dalia, the general partner, held a 4% interest, and Orly and Sagi, the limited partners, each held a 48% interest.

- 5. In December 1993, Dalia and Arie also established identical irrevocable inter vivos trusts for the benefit of each of their children: the Orly Trust and the Sagi Genger 1993

  Trust (the "Sagi Trust"). For estate-planning purposes, Dalia and Arie funded each trust with a $600,000 gift. The intent behind the trusts was to ensure that both children received property of equal value. Sash A. Spencer and Lawrence M. Small were named Co-Trustees of both trusts and remained Co-Trustees until the Genger's divorce. After the Trusts were funded, Orly and Sagi each assigned their 48% interests in D & K to their Trusts.
- 6. At the same time in December 1993, D & K purchased 240 shares of common stock (constituting 49% of the outstanding shares) in TPR for $10,200,000. The shares were purchased with $600,000 from each of the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust and $50,000 from Dalia, totaling $1,250,000, and the balance was satisfied with a recourse $8,950,000 promissory note (the "Note") (a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit B). Pursuant to the Note, principal, together with accrued interest, was to be repaid by D & K in annual installments over ten years. The Note was secured by a pledge of the 240 TPR shares owned by D & K. Each of the Trusts and Dalia assumed liability on the Note in proportion to its/her direct interest in D & K. Accordingly, each of the Orly and Sagi Trusts assumed a 48% liability on the Note and a cquired a 23.52% indirect interest in TPR and Dalia assumed a 4% liability on the Note and a 1.96% indirect interest in TPR. Payments were made on the Note until 1999, at which time D & K stopped making payments with the implied consent of the interested parties.
- 7. At the time of the above-described transaction, Arie owned the remaining 51% of TPR, which held investments in various securities, including TRI common stock, as well as its interest in the Note. As of March 30, 2001, TPR held a 52.85% interest in TRI. The remaining minority interest in TRI (47.15%) was owned by various entities controlled directly and indirectly by Jules and Eddie Trump (the "Trump Group").

- 8. On October 26, 2004, Dalia and Arie entered into a Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement as a final settlement of their divorce (the "Settlement Agreement") (annexed hereto as Exhibit C). Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Dalia received, inter alia, Arie's 51% interest in TPR and retained her 4% interest in D & K. TPR's 52.85% interest in TRI was transferred to Arie and the Trusts as follows: (i) 13.99% to Arie, (ii) 19.43% to the Orly Trust, and (iii) 19.43% to the Sagi Trust. The Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust each granted Arie an irrevocable lifetime voting proxy over their TRI shares (annexed hereto as Exhibit D). Therefore, after October 29, 2004, Arie and the two Trusts held a controlling interest in TRI, and TPR no longer owned any TRI common stock.
- 9. In connection with the divorce settlement, Dalia took measures to cede management of D & K and TPR to her son Sagi. On October 21, 2004, days before signing the Settlement Agreement, Dalia and Sagi formed D & K GP LLC ("D & K GP"), whose sole purpose was to act as the general partner of D & K. Dalia exchanged her 4% interest in D & K and $1.00 for a 99% membership interest in D & K GP. Sagi purchased a 1% membership interest in D & K GP for $1.00. Pursuant to the Limited Liability Agreement of D & K GP (annexed hereto as Exhibit E), Sagi was given the power to select a manager of D & K GP whose function would be to control D & K's assets. Sagi selected himself to act as manager; thus, Dalia effectively handed Sagi the authority to control D & K and its assets. Also, by forming D & K GP, Dalia and Sagi shielded themselves from any personal liability stemming from D & K, including any personal liability related to the Note. This left the Trusts solely liable on the Note.

- 10. On October 30, 2004, Dalia entered into a shareholder agreement with TPR that provided for the management of TPR. Specifically, pursuant to the shareholder agreement (annexed hereto as Exhibit F), D & K, which owned 49% of TPR, was given authority to appoint one board member to the TPR board. Sagi, as the managing partner of D & K, appointed himself as a board member of TPR. As the majority owner of TPR, Dalia was named as the other board member. In addition, the shareholder agreement appointed Sagi as Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of TPR. Accordingly, Dalia essentially ceded control of TPR to Sagi, just as she had done with D & K.
- 11. Below, for the Court's convenience, is a side-by-side summary of Arie's, Dalia's, the Orly Trust's, and the Sagi Trust's interests in TPR before and after Arie's and Dalia's divorce.<sup>2</sup>

TPR OWNERSHIP BEFORE AND AFTER DIVORCE

PERCENTAGE

Person	TPR Before	TPR After Arie Genger	51.00%	0%
Dalia Genger	1.96%	52.96%
Orly Trust	23.52%	23.52%
Sagi Trust	23.52%	23.52%
TOTAL	100%	100%

- 12. In connection with the Settlement Agreement, Dalia required that the Trustees of the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust (Messrs. Sash and Small) resign and be replaced with friends of Sagi. Numerous successor trustees were appointed to the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust, all of whom were affiliated with Sagi in one way or another. David Parnes and Eric Gribetz (Sagi's longtime friends) and Leah Fang (Sagi's sister-in-law) were appointed as successor trustees to the Orly Trust, and Messrs. Parnes and Gribetz, Rochelle Fang (Sagi's mother-in-law), and Mr. Parnes again, were appointed successor trustees of the Sagi Trust. In January 2008, Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, despite Orly's objection. By that time, as a result of Dalia's granting him control of TPR and D & K, and through the appointment of his friends and relatives as successor trustees of the Trusts, Sagi effectively had obtained control over the assets held by all of D & K, TPR, the Sagi Trust, and the Orly Trust.
- 13. On August 2, 2006, Sagi, as part of his managerial role in D & K GP, D & K, and TPR, assigned the Note which then had an approximate value of $11,000,000 as a result of accrued interest to Mr. Parnes for only $12,000. (A copy of the Memorandum dated August 2, 2006, assigning the Note is annexed hereto as Exhibit H.) The assignment stated that D & K "denied enforceability of the Note" (see Exhibit H annexed hereto), which presumably is why it was "sold" for $12,000. Sagi signed the assignment on behalf of both TPR, as the maker, and D & K, as the holder. Dalia was copied on the memorandum assigning the note, but neither Orly, the Orly Trust, nor the then-Trustee of the Orly Trust received copies of the memorandum. At the time of this assignment, Mr. Parnes was acting as trustee of both the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust. Shortly after the assignment, Mr. Parnes resigned as Trustee of the Orly Trust in recognition of the inherent conflict he faced in that role.

- 14. Sometime in 2007, Sagi sold a 2% interest in TPR to Rochelle Fang. The cost of the 2% interest was based upon a bogus valuation of TPR at $50,000,000. At the time of the sale, TPR's assets were worth between approximately $11,000,000 and $12,000,000, plus the value of the Note. This sale effectively stripped Dalia of her majority interest in TPR giving Sagi unfettered control of TPR, in addition to his control of D & K and D & K GP. In January 2008, when Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, she completely divested herself of the balance of her TPR shares. Dalia has not informed either the Court or Orly as to when she transferred her TPR interest.
- appointed Trustee of the Sagi Trust, attempted to sell the Sagi Trust's 19.43% interest in TRI to the Trump Group, who already owned 47.15% of TRI's outstanding shares, for $26,715,416.

  This sale purportedly transferred control of TRI from Arie to the Trump Group who thereafter purported to hold 66.58% of TRI's outstanding common stock.<sup>3</sup> In connection with the supposed sale, Sagi and David Parnes were given seats on TRI's board of directors. If given effect, this purported sale, which was consummated after Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, would dilute and diminish the value of the Orly Trust's interest in TRI.
- 16. Dalia, who had notice of the supposed sale, made no effort to prevent the sale or to protect the value of the Orly Trust's interest in TRI. Fearing that Dalia would continue to neglect her duty to protect the Orly Trust's assets, on January 10, 2009, Petitioner wrote a letter (annexed hereto as Exhibit I) to her mother stating that "for now, and until further notice, it is my strong desire to retain all of the shares of TRI that are currently in the Orly Trust, and I direct you not to sell them." Dalia refused to agree not to dispose of the TRI shares.

II. THE EVIDENCE DISCOVERED BY PETITIONER ON JUNE 1, 2009, REQUIRES INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AND THE IMMEDIATE REMOVAL OF DALIA AS TRUSTEE

- In February 2008, Orly applied to this Court to designate a Trustee, or in the alternative to appoint a special trustee, claiming that Dalia and all of the preceding successor trustees of the Orly Trust were improperly appointed and had no authority to act on behalf of the Orly Trust. Orly also alleged wrongful dealings by Dalia as Trustee of the Orly Trust. In denying the application without prejudice, this Court stated that Orly had made allegations without sufficient supporting evidence and suggested that Orly commence an SCPA § 2201 proceeding to obtain the necessary evidence and then renew her application. (A copy of the Court's decision is annexed hereto as Exhibit J.)
- 18. On May 14, 2009, as a prerequisite to the SCPA § 2201 application, Orly's counsel sent Dalia Genger a letter (annexed hereto as Exhibit K) requesting documents related to the Orly Trust's assets. Soon thereafter, Orly's counsel was notified that Dalia had retained Robert A. Meister, Esq., of Pedowitz & Meister, LLP, and Orly's counsel therefore forwarded a copy of the May 14th letter to Mr. Meister.
- Orly's counsel that the Orly Trust no longer owned any interest in TPR. According to the letter, Sagi, acting as CEO of TPR, had foreclosed on the Note and had sold D & K's 240 shares of TPR for $2,220,000. (A copy of the Letter dated June 1, 2009, is annexed hereto as Exhibit L.)

  Before that time, Dalia had neither advised nor notified Orly that Sagi had foreclosed on the Note, 4 nor advised Orly that Sagi had sold the TPR shares at auction. Thus, upon receipt of Mr. Meister's letter, Orly learned for the first time that:

- (a) On August 31, 2008, Sagi, acting as CEO of TPR, notified himself as the general manager of D & K, that D & K was in default of the Note and declared that unless the entire unpaid principal amount of the Note was paid immediately, TPR would sell, at auction, the 240 shares pledged as collateral. (A copy of the Notification dated August 31, 2008, is annexed hereto as Exhibit M.)
- (b) Thereafter, Sagi, again acting as CEO of TPR, purported to notify D & K (of which he remained the managing partner) that D & K's 240 shares of TPR stock would be publicly auctioned to the highest bidder on February 27, 2009, and that the money received from the sale would be used to reduce the outstanding debt. (A copy of the Notification is annexed hereto as Exhibit N.) Sagi purported to notify the interested parties of the sale by publishing notice of the sale in the New York Post in October 2008 and February 2009. Although at all relevant times Sagi had Orly's contact information, he never informed her of the impending sale.
- (c) On February 27, 2009, TPR (still controlled by Sagi) foreclosed on the 240 shares of TPR and "auctioned" the shares. Not coincidentally, the Sagi-controlled TPR purchased the shares at auction for $2,200,000. (See Exhibit O). The proceeds of the sale i.e., $2,220,000 were used to decrease D & K's obligations under the Note, leaving a balance of approximately $8,800,000.
- 20. On June 11, 2009, Orly's counsel sent Mr. Meister a letter asking that Dalia, in accordance with Orly's January 2009 request and in light of the secretive diminution of the Orly

Trust's interest in TPR, stipulate in writing that she would not, under any circumstances and until all issues were resolved, sell, transfer, or remove the TRI shares from the Orly Trust. (A copy of the Letter dated June 11, 2009, is annexed hereto as Exhibit P.) That same day, Mr. Meister responded to the June 11th letter, but he failed to address the terms of the proposed stipulation. (A copy of Mr. Meister's Letter dated June 11, 2009, is annexed hereto as Exhibit Q.)

A. A Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") Is Necessary To Protect The Remaining Assets Held By the Orly Trust

- 21. It is clear from Dalia's deliberate inaction and complete deferral to Sagi in all matters related to D & K, TPR, and TRI, that without Court intervention Orly's TRI shares will be: a) sold at a significantly discounted rate so that the proceeds can be used to pay her unpaid portion of the Note, b) used as collateral to secure the Orly Trust's unpaid portion of the Note, or c) used to satisfy a Judgment against the Orly Trust. Since Orly's address was known to her brother and her mother at all relevant times, publishing notice of the sale of the TPR shares alone was a clear and deliberate attempt to prohibit Orly from intervening in the foreclosure and the sale. Dalia, who had knowledge of the events as they were transpiring, easily could have given notice of the auction to Orly, but she intentionally chose not to. There is now reason to believe that Dalia will again remain passive if and when Sagi seeks to hijack, sell, or otherwise meddle with the Orly Trust's TRI shares, even though Orly has specifically advised her mother, in writing, to protect the Trust's ownership of the TRI shares.
- 22. There is no reason to trust that Dalia will honor her daughter's wishes and instructions since, from the time of her divorce, she has done nothing but ensure that Sagi has complete control over TPR, D & K, and D & K GP, and has allowed Sagi to do as he pleases. At this time, approximately $8,800,000 of the Note remains unsatisfied, and Sagi, as CEO of TPR, has not voided the notice of default. Based upon Dalia's deliberate inaction and failure to protect the Orly Trust's assets to date, there is strong evidence to reasonably conclude that Dalia will not protect the Orly Trust's interest in the TRI shares, but rather, will act to benefit herself and Sagi, including by allowing Sagi to obtain the TRI shares to satisfy the Orly Trust's unpaid portion of the Note. Without immediate injunctive relief, Orly will have no recourse and the Orly Trust will be vulnerable to complete depletion. The harm caused to the Orly Trust under these circumstances would be irreparable.

23. Based on the facts and documentary evidence presented herein it is likely that the Orly Trust will succeed on the merits of her Petition. Accordingly, she meets the criteria necessary to obtain a TRO and a preliminary injunction. Petitioner therefore respectfully requests that the Court grant her Petition for a TRO and a preliminary injunction in order to protect the assets held by the Orly Trust, including the TRI shares.

B. Dalia Must Be Removed As Trustee Immediately

24. Based on the information provided to Orly's counsel on June 1, 2009, which confirms Respondent's lack of diligence and disloyal service as Trustee, there now exists sufficient evidence to have Respondent removed as Trustee of the Orly Trust. While serving as Trustee, Dalia intentionally failed to notify Orly that TPR was taking measures to foreclose on the Orly Trust's 23.52% indirect interest in TPR. It was Dalia's duty as a fiduciary of the Orly Trust to be apprised of all activity concerning the Orly Trust and to ensure that Orly received proper notification of the default and auction. Moreover, Dalia actually knew of the foreclosure and the auction, but took no steps to protect the Orly Trust's interest in TPR. Dalia knew of Sagi's plan to foreclose on the Note and sell the TPR shares as early as August 2008; thus, she withheld information concerning the auction from Orly for almost ten months. Dalia did not disclose the foreclosure and share sale until she received the demand letter from Orly's counsel and realized that legal action was imminent. Instead of protecting the Orly Trust's and its beneficiary's interests, Dalia sat back and silently watched her son strip the Orly Trust of its indirect interest in TPR.

- 25. The corporate structure which has intertwined TPR, D & K GP, and D & K's assets, all of which are in some manner controlled by Sagi as a result of Dalia's actions, permits Dalia and Sagi to engage in self-dealing and does not provide for any accountability on either Sagi's or Dalia's part. Unfortunately, the Orly Trust is caught in the middle of Dalia's and Sagi's conspiracy to engage in self-dealing intended to benefit their own interests, while Sagi has been permitted to diminish and dissipate the value of the Orly Trust's assets, including its interests in TPR and, potentially, TRI. By enriching herself and her son at the expense of her daughter, Dalia is in breach of her fiduciary duties as Trustee of the Orly Trust. It is imperative that Orly have a successor trustee appointed who will unbiasedly and loyally protect the Orly Trust's remaining assets.
  - (1) In Direct Conflict With Her Obligations as Fiduciary of The Orly Trust,

    Dalia Did Nothing To Stop Sagi From Attempting to Sell His Trust's TRI

    Shares, Which, If Valid, Would Dilute the Value of the Orly Trust's Assets
- 26. The Sagi Trust's attempted sale of its interest in TRI to the Trump Group for $26,715,416, which occurred after Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, purportedly transferred control of TRI from Arie to the Trump Group. As mentioned above, supra paragraph 15, if this purported sale were given effect, then the value of the Orly Trust's assets would be significantly diminished. If the purported sale were valid and effective, then Arie would no longer own a controlling interest in TRI, and thus the Orly Trust would no longer own a portion of the controlling block of TRI shares.
- 27. Dalia, as a fiduciary of the Orly Trust, was obligated to apprise herself of any transactions that could affect the value of the Orly Trust's shares, and, in fact, Dalia was contemporaneously aware of the Sagi Trust sale. But Dalia made no effort to protect the value of the Orly Trust's TRI shares by challenging the proposed sale. Moreover, she has taken no position with regard to the current value of the TRI shares and has taken no measures to protect the Orly Trust's interest in TRI since the purported sale, despite Orly's urgings. By remaining passive with respect to the Orly Trust's TRI shares, Dalia is completely ignoring the intent behind the establishment of the Orly Trust – to transfer an equal amount of assets to each of the children. Dalia, through her actions and her inaction alike, may have permitted Sagi to secure substantially more value from the Trusts' assets than Orly.

- (2) In Direct Conflict With Her Obligations as Fiduciary of The Orly Trust,
  Dalia Took No Action To Protect the Orly Trust's Interest in TPR
- 28. Pursuant to the August 2006 memorandum assigning the Note to David Parnes on which Dalia was copied Sagi, acting as the managing partner of D & K, took the position that the Note was unenforceable. (See Paragraph 4 of Exhibit H annexed hereto.) In the exact same memorandum, however, Sagi, acting as the CEO of TPR, took the directly contrary position that TPR reserved its right to enforce the Note. (See Paragraph 8 of Exhibit H annexed hereto.)
- 29. On February 14, 2007, Dalia, who participated in the "sham" transaction between Sagi and Mr. Parnes, and in a clear attempt to clean her hands of any impropriety, admitted in a sworn statement to the Court that no one was ever supposed to foreclose on the Note. (See Paragraph 3 of Exhibit R annexed hereto). Additionally, the unpaid Note was the subject of a post-judgment arbitration proceeding between Dalia and Arie, which took place in September 2007. Dalia, who was present at the proceedings, heard Sagi and Mr. Parnes testify that the Note should not be enforced and that Sagi, as CEO of TPR, had no intention of collecting the unpaid portion of the Note. Thus, Dalia knew long before August 2008 that TPR had effectively disclaimed its right to foreclose on the Note.

- 30. As described above, however, in August 2008 (eleven months later), Sagi sought to enforce the Note. Contrary to the position he had taken under oath at the arbitration, and contrary to the position he had taken as the managing partner of D & K (see Paragraph 4 of Exhibit H attached hereto), Sagi issued a default notice to D & K on behalf of TPR. Dalia, who knew the Note was never intended to be enforced and who previously had sworn to as much, should have immediately sought to block Sagi from foreclosing on the Note and selling the TPR shares. Notwithstanding her knowledge and her previous statements, however, Dalia failed to make any effort to stop Sagi when he engaged in this clear act of self-dealing, even though the Orly Trust had a clear interest in the TPR shares at issue. As a fiduciary of the Orly Trust with prior, as well as continued knowledge, of the TPR foreclosure, TPR's supposed claims against D & K, and D & K's ability to challenge those claims based on prior representations, Dalia had a duty to protect the Orly Trust's indirect ownership of the TPR shares. But instead of taking the proactive measures required of a fiduciary, Dalia did nothing and allowed Sagi to obtain the TPR shares for himself to the detriment of the Orly Trust.<sup>5</sup>
- 31. Additionally, Dalia's failure to act in the face of the foreclosure and sale of TPR stock is especially egregious because she has known since August 2008 that the purported sale of TRI stock to the Trump Group is being challenged in Delaware state court. She also has known that in that action the Trump Group is asserting that it bought the TRI stock from either the Sagi Trust or TPR. Thus, she has known that, depending on the outcome of the litigation in Delaware, the Orly Trust could have an interest in the $27 million paid by the Trumps in August

2008 if its interest in TPR were preserved. Accordingly, as trustee of the Orly Trust, she should have been especially vigilant in protecting the Orly Trust's interest in TPR through D & K. But instead, she allowed Sagi to essentially steal the Orly Trust's interest in TPR so that Sagi can attempt to retain the entire $27 million regardless of the outcome in Delaware Chancery Court. Her inaction in this regard is a blatant violation of her fiduciary duties as trustee.

III. DALIA SHOULD BE SUR-CHARGED IN THE AMOUNT OF THE LOSS OF THE VALUE OF ORLY'S INTEREST IN TPR AS DETERMINED BY THE COURT AND ORLY SHOULD BE AWARDED ATTORNEYS' FEES

32. By failing to take action on behalf of the Orly Trust to prevent Sagi from foreclosing on the Note and selling D & K's TPR shares, Dalia caused the Orly Trust to lose its interest in TPR. Accordingly, Dalia should be surcharged in an amount of the loss of the value of Orly's interest in TPR as determined by the Court and should be required to reimburse the Orly Trust for its attorneys' fees incurred in connection with bringing this action.

IV. MICHAEL D. GROHMAN, ESQ. SHOULD BE APPOINTED AS SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE

- Based on Dalia's deliberate breach of her fiduciary duties to the Orly Trust, and in light of Dalia's prior nefarious conduct as the Orly Trust's Trustee, this Court should remove Dalia as Trustee and replace her with Michael D, Grohman, Esq. Mr. Grohman is a member of the New York Bar and the head of the Trust and Estates practice group at Duane Morris LLP. Mr Grohman is not acquainted with any members of the Genger family, does not have any interest in TRI, TPR, or D & K, and is willing and prepared to succeed Dalia immediately.
  - 34. No prior application has been made for the relief requested herein.

TRUST AGREEMENT dated December 3, 1993, between ARIE GENGER (now residing at 1067 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York), as Grantor, and LAWRENCE M. SMALL (now residing at 2804 Woodland Drive, Washington, D.C. 20008) and SASH A. SPENCER (now residing at 251 Crandon Boulevard, Townhouse 164, Key Biscayne, Florida 33149), as Trustees.

The Grantor hereby transfers to the Trustees, and the Trustees hereby acknowledge receipt of, the sum of Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($600,000.00), to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Article FIRST hereof. Said sum and any other property that may be received by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of Article FOURTH hereof, and all investments and reinvestments thereof, and all proceeds thereof which constitute principal, are hereinafter collectively called "principal."

This Trust Agreement shall be known as the "Orly Genger 1993 Trust Agreement" and the trust created by Article FIRST hereof shall be known as the "Orly Genger 1993 Trust."

FIRST: Disposition of Principal and Income During the Life of the Grantor's Daughter, ORLY GENGER.

A. The Trustees shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the principal of the trust created by this Article. IN TRUST, and, so long as the Grantor's daughter, ORLY GENGER, shall live, the Trustees are authorized and empowered to pay such part, parts or all, if any, of the net income of the trust created by this Article (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "Orly's Trust") to, or apply such part, parts or all, if any, of such net income for the use or benefit of, such one or more of the following individuals living from time to time in such equal or unequal amounts or proportions, and at such time or times, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine:

- 1. The Grantor's daughter, ORLY GENGER.
- Each descendant of ORLY GENGER.

The Trustees shall accumulate all income of Orly's Trust not so paid to or applied and, at least annually, add such net income to the principal of Orly's Trust.

In making such distributions, the Trustees are requested (but they are not directed) to limit the total amount of the distributions made to any descendant of ORLY GENGER with respect to any calendar year to the amount necessary to increase such descendant's taxable income for United States income tax purposes for such year to the greatest amount that shall still result in such descendant not being subject to United States income taxes at the highest marginal rate in effect for such year, after taking into account all of such descendant's other income and deductions for such year.

B. The Trustees are authorized and empowered to pay to, or apply for the use or benefit of, the Grantor's said daughter such part, parts or all, if any, of the principal of Orly's Trust, and at such time or times, as said Trustees, in est in the trust of any other person and without regard to the interfact that any such payment or application may result in the termination of Orly's Trust.

- C. Upon the death of the Grantor's said daughter, the Trustees shall pay the then principal of Orly's Trust, together with all net income thereof then accrued but not yet collected, and collected but not yet disposed of, as follows:
- 1. The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of such income and principal, in such equal or unequal amounts or proportions, to or for the use or benefit of such one or more of the descendants of the Grantor's said daughter, and upon such terms, conditions and trusts, if any, as the Grantor's said daughter, by a provision in her Will expressly referring to this Article of this Trust Agreement, shall validly direct and appoint. If, or to the extent that, the Grantor's said daughter shall fail so validly to direct and appoint such principal and income, the Trustees, at the death of the Grantor's said daughter, shall pay the same, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of the Grantor's said daughter as shall survive her, subject, however, to the provisions of Article SECOND hereof, or, if no descendant of the Grantor's said daughter shall survive her, per stirpes, to such of the Grantor's descendants as shall so survive, or, if no descendant of the Grantor shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof.

- such income and principal, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of the Grantor's said daughter as shall survive her, subject, however, to the provisions of Article SECOND hereof, or, if no descendant of the Grantor's said daughter shall survive her, per stirpes, to such of the Grantor's descendants as shall so survive, or, if no descendant of the Grantor shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof
- 3. If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 or paragraph 2 of this Section C, the Trustees are directed to pay a per stirpital share of such income and principal to a descendant of the Grantor, and if at the time the Trustees are so directed there shall be in existence a trust for such descendant under a trust agreement between Arie Genger, as grantor, and Lawrence M. Small and Sash A. Spencer, as trustees, executed on the date hereof and known as the "Sagi Genger 1993 Trust Agreement," the Trustees shall not pay such per stirpital share to such descendant but shall instead pay such per stirpital share to the trustees then acting under said trust agreement, to be disposed of by them pursuant to the provisions of the trust for such descendant under said trust agreement.
- D. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any Trustee hereunder shall be one of the potential income beneficiaries of Orly's Trust, such Trustee shall not, in his or her capacity as such a Trustee, have any voice or vote or otherwise participate in any decision pertaining to the payment or application of the income or principal of Orly's Trust to or for the use or benefit of him or her in his or her capacity as a beneficiary of such trust or to or for the use or benefit of any person whom he or she has an obligation to support, and, in each such event, the other Trustee or Trustees shall make all decisions relating to such trust that pertain to such matters.

SECOND: Continuing Trusts for Descendants of the Grantor's Daughter, ORLY GENGER.

If, under any provision of this Trust Agreement, any property is directed to be paid to a descendant of the Grantor's daughter, ORLY GENGER, subject to the provisions of this Article, such property shall not be distributed or paid to such descendant. Instead, the Trustees shall continue to hold such property, IN TRUST (in a separate trust for each such descendant which is referred to in this Article as "such descendant's trust"; provided, however, that if there shall be property so directed to be paid on more than one occasion to any such descendant, all such property shall be held in a single trust for such descendant), and, so long as such descendant shall live before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees, other than such descendent if he or she shall be a Trustee hereunder, are authorized and empowered to pay to, or apply for the use or benefit of, such descendant, such part, parts or all, if any, of the net income of such descendant's trust, and at such time or times, as said Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine, and the Trustees shall accumulate the balance of such net income, if any, and, at least annually, add it to the principal of such descendant's trust, and, so long as such descendant shall live after attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees shall pay to such descendant all of the net income of such descendant's trust in at least quarterly installments.

- B. The Trustees, other than such descendant if he or she shall be a Trustee hereunder, are authorized and empowered to pay to, or apply for the use or benefit of, such descendant, such part, parts or all, if any, of the principal of such descendant's trust, and at such time or times, as said Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine, without regard to the interest in the trust of any other person and without regard to the fact that any such payment or application may result in the termination of the trust.
- C. Upon the death of such descendant (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "such deceased descendant"), the Trustees shall pay the then principal of such deceased descendant's trust, together with all net income thereof accrued but not yet collected, and collected but not yet disposed of, as follows:

- The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of ı. such income and principal, in such equal or unequal amounts or proportions, to or for the use or benefit of such one or more of the descendants of such deceased descendant, and upon such terms, conditions and trusts, if any, as such deceased descendant, by a provision in his or her Will expressly referring to this Article of this Trust Agreement, shall validly direct and appoint. If, or to the extent that, such deceased descendant shall fail so expressly and so validly to direct and appoint such principal and income, the Trustees shall, at the death of such deceased descendant, pay the same, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of such deceased descendant as shall survive such deceased descendant, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, per stirpes, to such of the descendants as shall so survive of the ancestor of such deceased descendant closest in degree of relationship to such deceased descendant who (i) shall have descendants who shall so survive and (ii) shall have been a descendant of the Grantor or shall have been the Grantor, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof.
- 2. The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of such income and principal, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of such deceased descendant as shall survive such deceased descendant, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, per stirpes, to such of the descendants as shall so survive of the ancestor of such deceased descendant closest in degree of relationship to such deceased descendant who (i) shall have descendants who shall so survive and (ii) shall have been a descendant of the Grantor or shall have been the Grantor, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof.

If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 or paragraph 2 of this Section C, the Trustees are directed to pay a per stirpital share of such income and principal to a descendant of the Grantor subject to the provisions of this Article, and if at the time the Trustees are so directed there shall be in existence a trust for such descendant under a trust agreement between Arie Genger, as grantor, and Lawrence M. Small and Sash A. Spencer, as trustees, executed on the date hereof and known as the "Sagi Genger 1993 Trust Agreement," the Trustees shall not pay such per stirpital share to such descendant subject to the provisions of this Article but shall instead pay such per stirpital share to the trustees then acting under said trust agreement, to be disposed of by them pursuant to the provisions of the trust for such descendant under said trust agreement.

each trust created by the terms of this Article shall terminate, if not sooner terminated, upon the expiration of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last surviving descendant of the Grantor's parents, SHARGA GENGER and DORA GENGER, who shall have been in being on the date hereof; and the Trustees shall thereupon pay the then principal of any trust terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Section, together with all net income thereof accrued but not yet collected and collected but not yet disposed of, to the descendant of the Grantor with respect to whom such trust is being held.

Each appointment of a successor Trustee hereunder shall be made by the execution of an instrument of appointment signed and acknowledged by the individual who shall have made such appointment and by delivering such instrument in accordance with the provisions of Section G of this Article; and any such appointment may be revoked in the same manner by the individual Trustee who shall have made it at any time before the occurrence of the event or events as of which such appointment shall, by its provisions, become effective. COLEMAN (now residing at 51 Cambridge Road, Great Neck, New York 11023) shall act as Trustee hereunder.
- 2. If MARTIN A. COLEMAN shall fail or cease cease to act as a Trustee hereunder, and no successor Trustee appointed by him pursuant to the provisions of Section B of this Article shall quality and act as a Trustee hereunder, THOMAS G. HARDY (now residing at 935 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10028) shall act as a Trustee hereunder.
- D. Each successor Trustee hereunder shall qualify as such by accepting the trusteeship by the execution of a signed and acknowledged instrument of acceptance and by delivering such instrument in accordance with the provisions of Section G of this Article.

- G. - H. No bond or other security shall be given by or required in any jurisdiction (whether in the State of New York or elsewhere) of any Trustee at any time acting hereunder (whether such Trustee is named herein or appointed pursuant to the provisions hereof) for the faithful performance of such Trustee's fiduciary duties in any capacity hereunder regardless of whether such Trustee is or may become a non-resident of the State of New York or elsewhere.

EIGHTH: Compensation of Trustees.

No Trustee hereunder, whether such Trustee is hereinabove named or appointed pursuant to the provisions hereof, shall be entitled to any compensation (other than reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses) for services rendered as a Trustee hereunder; and each Trustee who is a party to this Trust Agreement or who qualifies as a successor Trustee hereunder as provided herein shall be deemed to have agreed to serve as such Trustee without receiving any such compensation.

NINTH: Settlement of Trustees' Accounts; Exoneration of Trustees.

A. Nevertheless, the Trustees may at any time have their accounts judicially settled with respect to any trust created hereunder, and in any such proceeding it shall not be necessary to serve any person who is under a disability if there is another party to the proceeding who is not under any disability and who has the same interest as the person who is under a disability, and, in such event, it shall not be necessary to appoint a guardian ad litem for any such party who is under a disability. The expenses of any such account shall be a proper administration expense of the trust to which such account relates.

B. If any Trustee shall resign as a Trustee hereunder, the continuing Trustee, if any, or, if there is no continuing Trustee, any successor Trustee who shall have qualified to act in accordance with the provisions of Section D of Article SEVENTH hereof, may deliver to the Trustee so resigning an instrument whereby such resigning Trustee shall be released and discharged, to the extent stated therein, of and now and binding upon all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of any trust hereunder and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of the account of such Trustee in which jurisdiction was obtained of all necessary and proper parties. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude any Trustee so resigning from having his or her account judicially settled, and in any such proceeding it shall not be necessary to serve any person who is under a disability if there is another party to the proceeding who is not under any disability and who has the same interest as the person who is under a disability, and, in such event, it shall not be necessary to appoint a guardian ad litem for any such party who is under a disability. The expenses of any judicial account rendered by a Trustee who shall resign shall be a proper administration expense of the trust to which such account relates.

C. In addition to the foregoing, the Trustees are hereby authorized, at any time and from time to time, with respect to any trust hereunder, to settle the account of the Trustees by agreement between the Trustees and the then adult individual or individuals to whom or for whose use or benefit the income of such trust may then be paid or applied and the adult or adults who would be entitled to the principal in case such trust were to terminate at the time of such agreement, excluding any such individual who is under a disability if there is a party to the agreement who is not under any disability and who has the same interest as the individual who is under a disability, which agreement shall bind all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of such trust. Any such settlement shall have the same force and effect as a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of such account in which jurisdiction was obtained of all necessary and proper parties. The expenses of any such account shall be a proper administration expense of such trust.

D. To the extent permitted by law, no Trustee shall be accountable, liable or responsible for any act, default, negligence, or omission of any other Trustee.

TWELFIH: Provisions Relating to the GST.

- A. As used in this Article:
- 1. "GST" shall mean and refer to "the United States generation-skipping transfer tax imposed by Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code."

- 2. The words "inclusion ratio" shall have the same meaning as those words are given in Section 2642 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- 3. The words "Net Death Taxes" shall mean and refer to "the aggregate death taxes (including, without limitation, United States, state, local and other estate taxes and inheritance taxes but not including any interest and penalties thereon), after taking into account all applicable credits, payable with respect to the estate of such beneficiary."
- B. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and in addition to any other power of appointment hereinabove given by the previous provisions of this Trust Agreement to any individual at whose death the inclusion ratio with respect to any trust under this Trust Agreement would, but for the provisions of this Section B, be more than zero (such individual being referred to in this Article as "such beneficiary"), the Trustees of such trust are authorized and empowered, by an acknowledged instrument in writing (with such instrument to be filed with the court, if any, then having jurisdiction over such trust, if such court shall accept such instrument for filing), (i) to create in such beneficiary a power (hereinafter referred to in this Section B as "such power"), to be exercised by a provision in his or her Will expressly referring to this Article of this Trust Agreement, to appoint to the creditors of his or her estate any portion of the property held in such trust at the death of such beneficiary, and (ii) to limit such power, by formula or otherwise, to less than all of the property held in such trust at the death of such beneficiary; provided, however, that with respect to each such trust, the maximum amount of property over which such power may be created shall not, after taking into account the property, if any, over which any other such power is created in such beneficiary, exceed the amount, if any, above which any further addition to the amount subject to such power would increase the Net Death Taxes determined with respect to such beneficiary's estate by an amount equal to or greater than the net decrease in the aggregate of (x) the GST and (y) any state and/or local tax on generation-skipping transfers imposed as a result of the death of such beneficiary that would result from such further addi-Unless such beneficiary's Will otherwise provides by express reference to this Trust Agreement and such power, the increase in the Net Death Taxes on such beneficiary's estate resulting from such power shall be paid from that part of the principal of such trust over which such power is exercisable. If, or to the extent that, such beneficiary shall fail so expressly and so validly to exercise any power created in such beneficiary by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, the unappointed portion (or, as the case may be, all) of the property subject to such power shall pass pursuant to the provisions of this Trust Agreement otherwise applicable to such property.

- The Trustees are further authorized and empowered, by an acknowledged instrument in writing (with such instrument to be filed with the court, if any, then having jurisdiction over the trust to which such power relates, if such court shall accept such instrument for filing), to revoke any power created by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Section B at any time prior to the death of the beneficiary in whom such power was created, and to release, in the manner set forth in Article THIRTEENTH hereof, the right to create such a power. The Trustees shall not be liable for any exercise, release or failure to exercise the authority and power granted to them by the provisions of said paragraph 1 or for the revocation of any power created by them pursuant to the provisions of said paragraph 1, provided they utilize good faith in considering whether or not to exercise or release such power or to cause such revocation, whether such consideration be at their own instance or at the request of an individual who is a beneficiary of a trust hereunder, the guardian or other fiduciary of such an individual, or a member of his or her family.
- C. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, if at any time any property is to be placed in a trust under the provisions of any Article of this Trust Agreement, the Trustees shall, if need be, and if it is possible to do so, divide such property and place the same in separate trusts to the end that one such trust shall have an inclusion ratio of zero, and if any property which is directed to be added to a trust hereunder shall have an inclusion ratio which is different than the inclusion ratio of such trust, the Trustees shall not make such addition but shall instead administer such property in a separate trust under this Trust Agreement; and, in each such instance, the property to be placed or held in such a separate trust shall be held, administered and disposed of by the Trustees pursuant to provisions identical to the provisions of the trust to which, but for the provisions of this paragraph 1, such property would have been placed or added.

- 2. If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Section C, any property that would otherwise be held in a single trust hereunder is instead held in separate trusts hereunder, the Trustees of such trusts may, at any time or from time to time, (i) make different tax elections and allocations with respect to each such trust, (ii) expend principal and income and exercise any discretionary power differently with respect to each such trust, (iii) invest each such trust differently, and/or (iv) take all other actions consistent with such trusts being separate entities. Furthermore, the donee of any power of appointment with respect to each such trusts may exercise such power differently with respect to each such trust.
- D. Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing Sections of this Article to the contrary, if any Trustee here-under is a current beneficiary of the income of any trust hereunder, or may, in the discretion of the Trustees, be a current income beneficiary of any such trust, then, in such event, such Trustee shall not, in his or her capacity as a Trustee of such trust, have any voice or vote or otherwise participate in any decision pertaining to the matters relating to such trust that are addressed in the foregoing Sections of this Article, and, in each such event, the other Trustee or Trustees of such trust shall make all decisions relating to such trust that pertain to such matters.

THIRTEENTH: Release of Powers.

Any beneficiary and any Trustee hereunder may at any time or times release any discretionary power of appointment or discretionary power to distribute principal or income or any other discretionary power hereby given to such beneficiary or Trustee, either with or without consideration, with respect to the whole or any part of the property subject to such power and also in such manner as to reduce or limit the persons or objects or classes of persons or objects in whose favor such power would otherwise be exercisable, by an instrument signed and acknowledged by the beneficiary or Trustee releasing such power and delivered to (i) each Trustee then acting hereunder (other than the Trustee, if any, who shall have executed such instrument), (ii) the Grantor (or, if the Grantor is not then living, to the executors, administrators or personal representatives of the Grantor's estate), or (iii) any one or more of the adult individuals to whom or for whose use or benefit the income of any trust hereunder may then be paid or applied. In the event of the release of any such power by any Trustee, the remaining Trustee or Trustees hereunder, if any, may thereafter exercise such power, other than any discretionary power which was not initially vested in such remaining Trustee or Trustees. The release of any power by any Trustee hereunder pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall not be binding upon any Trustee who may thereafter act as a Trustee hereunder unless such power shall have been released by all of the Trustees then in office who are vested with such power by their execution of a signed and acknowledged instrument specifically providing that such release is to be binding upon all successor Trustees hereunder.

FOURTEENTH: Provision With Respect To Closely Held Businesses

Without limiting the powers and authority conferred upon the Trustees by Article ELEVENTH hereof but in extension thereof, the Trustees are specifically authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to retain for as long as they, in their discretion, shall deem advisable, any or all shares of stock in any closely held corporation, or any indebtedness owing by any such corporation, or any or all interests in any proprietorship, unincorporated business, partnership, joint venture, realty or any other asset, whether owned individually, as tenant-in-common, partner or otherwise, regardless of whether such asset or assets shall be producing profits or losses through ownership or operation thereof, and regardless of the percentage of the trusts hereunder which such assets or similar assets may constitute; and their decision to retain and hold any such asset or liability shall be binding and conclusive upon and shall not be subject to question by any person interested, or who may become interested, in any of the trusts hereunder, and the Trustees shall not incur any liability by reason thereof.

FIFTEENTH: Headings.

The Article headings contained herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope hereof or the intent of any provision hereof.

SIXTEENTH: Severability.

Should any part, clause, provision or condition hereof be held to be void or invalid, then such invalidity shall not affect any other part, clause, provision or condition hereof, but the remainder hereof shall be effective as though such void part, clause, provision or condition had not been contained herein.

WITNESS the due execution hereof by the Grantor and Trustees on the day and year first above written.

4. Non-Liquid Assets.

(a) All of the parties' other marital assets which are not distributed pursuant to Section 2 of this Article II, including, but not limited to, personal and real property, and securities and investment accounts that cannot be divided in kind (the "Non

Liquid Assets"), shall be sold as promptly as practicable on terms determined by agreement of the parties; provided, however, that if the parties cannot agree on such terms within six (6) months of the date of execution of this Agreement (the "Initial Period"), the Husband and the Wife agree that thereafter authority and control over any then unsold Non Liquid Assets as to which the terms of sale have not been agreed on by the parties shall be vested in Sagi Genger pursuant to a power of attorney substantially in the form of Exhibit II(4)(a) (the "P/A"). Sagi Genger shall have full and complete authority to sell any and all Non-Liquid Assets at such prices and upon such terms and to distribute the proceeds of such sales as he, in his sole discretion, sees fit, subject however to paragraph (b) of this Section 4 of this Article II below, the terms of the P/A and his fiduciary duties to effectuate the intent of the parties in entering into this Agreement. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, each of the parties will execute the P/A and deliver it to Sagi Genger. After the Initial Period and during such time as there exist any unsold Non-Liquid Assets as to which the parties have not agreed on sale terms during the Initial Period, each of the parties will promptly execute and deliver to Sagi Genger any and all additional documents requested by Sagi Genger to effectuate the provisions of this paragraph (a) of this Section 4. At any time, the Husband and the Wife may mutually revoke the authority and control vested in Sagi Genger over such Non-Liquid Assets by providing him with written notice signed by the Husband and the Wife to that effect ("Revocation Notice"), in which case Sagi Genger will immediately surrender the P/A, the other documents and the Non Liquid Assets, to a party designated in the written notice by the Husband and the Wife in his stead (the "Successor Attorney in Fact"). If no Successor Attorney in Fact is designated in the Revocation Notice, David

A. Parnes, Esq. is designated as Successor Attorney in Fact. If Mr. Parnes is unwilling to act in such capacity or the parties revoke the authority and control vested in him by providing him with written notice signed by both of them to that effect and fail to designate a Successor Attorney in Fact in such notice, Eric Gribetz is designated as Successor Attorney in Fact. If Mr. Gribetz is unwilling to act in such capacity or the parties revoke the authority and control vested in him by providing him with written notice signed by both of them to that effect and fail to designate a Successor Attorney in Fact in such notice, Orly Genger is designated as Successor Attorney in Fact. If Sagi Genger is unable to act and the Husband and Wife do not promptly send the Revocation Notice, then Elana Genger (the spouse of Sagi Genger) together with either the Husband or the Wife may send the Revocation Notice to Sagi Genger, and in such event David A. Parnes, Esq. shall be designated as Successor Attorney-in-Fact.

(b) The net proceeds of the sales of the Non-Liquid Assets, whether effectuated within the Initial Period or thereafter, shall be distributed as follows: (i) such amount as would be required to cause the balance in the RC Escrow Amount to equal Twenty Five Thousand dollars ($25,000) ("Basic Escrow Amount") to the RC Escrow Account; and (ii) all amounts in excess of the Basic Escrow Amount to TPR in satisfaction of the parties' indebtedness to TPR as set forth in Article V hereof. Upon payment in full of such indebtedness to TPR, subject to the provisions of this Article II, Sagi Genger (or a Successor Attorney in Fact) shall, subject to his fiduciary duties to effectuate the intent of the parties in entering into this Agreement, have the complete authority, in his sole discretion, to determine the equitable distribution of the remaining net proceeds of the sales of the Non-Liquid Assets, whether to the Husband, the Wife or to the RC Escrow Account. The Husband and the Wife shall each be obligated to pay any Federal, state or local taxes due by them upon the sale of the Non-Liquid Assets.

5. First Anniversary Distributions. Within twenty (20) days of the first anniversary of this Agreement ("First Anniversary"), Sagi Genger (or a Successor Attorney in Fact) will provide the Husband and the Wife with a reasonably detailed written summary of the proceeds of the sale of the assets, and the distributions received by each party or deposited into the RC Escrow Account and any related expenses from and including the date of execution of this Agreement through the First Anniversary. The parties agree that, should there be an imbalance in the distributions received by either party ("Imbalance") in favor of either the Husband or the Wife (the "Overpaid Party") Sagi Genger will cause the RC Escrow Agent to pay to the other party ("Underpaid Party") promptly a sum in cash equal to the Imbalance. In determining any Imbalance with regard to the assets of TPR, the parties will adjust the value attributed to the assets of TPR, as set forth on Schedule III(1) annexed hereto and made a part hereof, based on the net proceeds from the sales of such assets from the execution of this Agreement through the First Anniversary.

6. Second Anniversary Distributions.

(a) Within twenty (20) days of the second anniversary of this

Agreement ("Second Anniversary"), Sagi Genger (or a Successor Attorney in Fact) will provide the Husband and the Wife with a reasonably detailed written cumulative summary of the proceeds of sale or the Assets, and the distributions received by each party from and including the date of this Agreement through the Second Anniversary or deposited in the RC Escrow Account and any related expenses. Should an Imbalance exist, at the election of Sagi Genger (or a Successor Attorney in Fact), either (i) the Overpaid Party shall promptly pay the Underpaid Party a portion of such Imbalance in cash, as instructed by Sagi Genger and/or (ii) Sagi Genger shall instruct the RC Escrow Agent to distribute the balance of the RC Escrow Account, in each case, to redress the Imbalance as of the Second Anniversary. With regard to TPR, the parties will adjust the value attributed to the assets of TPR, as set forth on Schedule II(1) annexed hereto and made a part hereof, based on the net proceeds from the sales of such assets from the execution of this Agreement through the Second Anniversary.

- (b) Any Non-Liquid Asset that has not been sold by the Second Anniversary shall be valued and distributed as the Husband and the Wife mutually agree.

  If there are any assets as to which such agreement has not been reached (the "Remaining Assets") by the 45th day after the Second Anniversary, the Husband and the Wife agree to purchase from, or to sell to, the other party the Remaining Assets, in accordance with the following procedure:
  - (i) a coin will be tossed in the air, by Orly Genger or in her absence by a person mutually acceptable to the Husband and the Wife;
  - (ii) the Husband will be designated as "Head" (i.e. the side of the coin where the profile of a person is impressed) and the Wife will be designated as "Tail" (i.e. the other side of the coin);
  - (iii) if the Head side of the coin shall lay face up, the Husband will become the Evaluating Party for the first Remaining Asset selected by the person tossing the coin, and if the Tail side of the coin shall lay face up, the Wife shall become the

Evaluating Party for the first Remaining Asset selected by the person tossing the coin;

- (iv) the Evaluating Party shall value and indicate in writing by five business days following the coin toss to the other party, the sum at which he or she values such Remaining Asset ("Evaluated RA Value");
- (v) by the fifth business day following receipt of the Evaluated RA Value from the Evaluating Party ("Determination Date"), the other party shall notify the Evaluating Party in writing whether he or she intends to acquire from, or to sell to, the Evaluating Party his or her fifty percent (50%) interest in such Remaining Asset, in which case the other party shall either remit to the Evaluating Party fifty percent (50%) of the Evaluated RA Value or receive from the Evaluating Party fifty percent (50%) of the Evaluated RA Value in cash, within thirty (30) business days following the Determination Date, against receipt of such Remaining Asset. If the Evaluating Party does not deliver to the other party the Evaluated RA Value within 30 days of the Determination Date, the other party shall be entitled to take the Remaining Asset in question free of any payment or obligation.

In the event that there is more than one Remaining Asset, the party who was not the Evaluating Party for the prior Remaining Asset, shall be entitled to select the next Remaining Asset to be evaluated and shall be the Evaluating Party for such Remaining Asset and the procedures in paragraphs (iv) and (v) above shall be followed. The parties shall thereafter alternate selection of the Remaining Asset for evaluation and acting as Evaluating Party as provided above, until all Remaining Assets have been evaluated and disposed of, as provided above.

- 7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, with a view to avoid the need for direct payments between the Husband and the Wife, when distributing proceeds from the sales of Non-Liquid Assets from time to time, Sagi Genger (or a Successor Attorney in Fact) will take into consideration anticipated changes caused by the sales of assets of TPR.
- 8. (a) Sagi Genger shall be entitled, in his sole discretion and subject to his fiduciary duty to implement the intent of the parties, to incur reasonable expenses necessary for the maintenance of the marital property (with the exception of the apartment (the "Apartment") at 2600 Island Boulevard, Penthouse One, Williams Island, Aventura, Florida 33160), where all maintenance and other ordinary monthly expenses (including, without limitation, taxes and insurance) shall be borne solely by the Husband, in accordance with paragraph (b) below), the expenses of selling the Non-Liquid Assets and other related activities, and to pay such expenses from the RC Escrow Account.
- (b) Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, the Wife hereby acknowledges the Husband's sole occupation and use of the Apartment until such time as the apartment is sold. The Husband will assume and promptly pay all maintenance and other ordinary monthly expenses incurred in connection with the Apartment until the time of sale of Apartment. The Husband and the Wife agree to cooperate in the sale of the Apartment during the Initial Period and to cooperate and not to interfere in any way with the sale of the Apartment by Sagi Genger (or a Successor Attorney in Fact) as part of the sale of the Non-Liquid Assets, after the Initial Period.
- 9. (a) TPR owns three thousand (3,000) shares of common stock in Trans Resources, Inc. ("TRI Stock"). The Husband represents and warrants to the Wife that the TRI Stock represents 52.85% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock-of TRI, and that the balance of 47.15% of the common stock of TRI is owned beneficially and of record, pursuant to an arm's length transaction with TRI, by (i) Glencova Investment Co., and (ii) TR Investors LLC, subject to a Shareholders Agreement, dated as of March 30, 2001, a complete and correct copy of which has been delivered to the Wife (the "TRI Shareholders Agreement"). The Husband further represents and warrants to Wife that he has no interest in Glencova Investment Co. or in TR Investors LLC and except for the options provided to Bank Hapoalim B.M. (a copy of the agreement granting an option to Bank Hapoalim has been delivered to the Wife), there exist no other direct or indirect ownership interests in TRI, whether by way of issuance of additional shares of any other class of stock, share options, warrants, convertible debt or the like and there is no agreement or understanding among the parties to the TRI Shareholders Agreement except as provided therein. Except for the Consent of TPR, the Husband further represents and warrants that no consent, approval or similar action of any person is required in connection with the transfer of TRI Stock as contemplated hereby and that such transfer will not conflict with any agreement to which the Husband is party or by which he is bound. The Husband further represents and warrants to the Wife that TRI equity may reasonably be considered to be a distressed private security. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, the TRI Stock shall be distributed as follows:

- (i) The Husband will receive 794.40 shares of the TRI Stock representing 13.99468% of the common stock of TRI;
- (ii) Each of Sagi Genger and Orly Genger, will receive in trust 1,102.80 shares of the TRI Stock representing 19.42766% of the common stock of

TRI for each of Sagi and Orly and such trusts will simultaneously therewith execute and deliver irrevocable proxies to Husband for all of the TRI stock owned by the trusts; and

- (c) Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, each of the Husband and Wife will execute and deliver or cause TPR to execute and deliver (i) all documents reasonably necessary to effect the transfers required by subparagraph (a) of this Section 9, and (ii) duly executed stock powers to transfer the shares as required by subparagraph (a) of this Section 9.
- (d) The parties will cause TRI to provide the Husband, Sagi Genger and Orly Genger with all documents in TRI's possession, custody and control relating to the adjusted tax basis of the TRI Stock.
- (e) Following the foregoing transfers of the TRI Stock, the Wife will have no ownership interest in TRI.
- 10. Lumenis Stock Options. The Husband is the owner of 1,400,000 stock options to purchase shares of Lumenis common stock ("Options") as set forth on Schedule II(10) annexed hereto and made part hereof, of which (i) 100,000 Options were granted to the Husband after the Commencement Date, (ii) prior to the Commencement Date the Husband transferred the economic interest in 250,000 Options to a third party (the options specified in (i) and (ii) are not marital property, and (iii) 1,050,000 options which are marital property (hereinafter referred to "Marital Options"); such Schedule II(10) will include the exercise prices of the Options.
- (a) The parties agree that the Wife shall be the beneficial owner of and receive the economic benefits of 525,000 Options as set forth on Schedule 11(10), representing 50% of Marital Options hereinafter referred to as the "Wife's Options"); the remaining 525,000 Marital Options are referred to herein as the "Husband's Options."

Pursuant to the Options' governing documents, the Husband is not allowed to transfer any of the Options. Accordingly, the Wife can not receive an actual transfer or assignment of the Wife's Options and the Wife has no claim directly or indirectly against Lumenis with respect to the Wife's Options.

(b) The Husband agrees to notify Lumenis of the exercise of Wife's Options, at her written direction, as promptly as practicable and no later then the fifth (5th) business day following the date on which the Husband shall receive "actual notice" (as defined below) in writing from the Wife requesting the exercise, provided that the Wife simultaneously with such notice remits payment of the appropriate exercise price by wire. transfer to the Husband or, if directed by the Husband, directly to Lumenis, with respect to those of the Wife's Options that she wishes to exercise, and, further provided that there are no legal impediments to such exercise, including, without limitation, any restrictions as set forth in the applicable agreements covering such Options, any "blackout periods" imposed by Lumenis on its officers and directors, or restrictions under the Federal Securities Laws or the rules and regulations of any applicable stock exchange. "Actual notice" shall mean the Husband's actual receipt of the written notice, which shall include the number of Wife's Options of each Class of Options she directs him to exercise, and, if required, appropriate payment from the Wife. In addition, the Wife also agrees to give written notice of any exercise of the Wife's Options to the person then designated to receive copies of notices to the Husband (see Article XX) concurrently with any notice to the Husband. The Husband shall not be liable with regard to any diminution in value or divestiture of option rights between the Wife's sending of notice and either (x) the Husband's receipt of the same and (y) the Husband's exercise of the Wife's Options on the Wife's behalf, provided that the Husband provides actual notice to Lumenis as promptly as practicable and no later than the 3rd business day following his receipt of notice from the Wife Upon any exercise of the Wife's Options, the Husband will deliver or cause to be delivered to the Wife the shares of Lumenis stock received upon such exercise as promptly as practicable.

- Options may terminate for reasons specified in applicable agreements or otherwise, and the Husband may thereby lose his rights to the Options. As long as the Wife's Options are outstanding, the Husband will use his best efforts to maintain his rights to such Options. If there is nonetheless a forfeiture or loss of all or any portion of the Options while Wife's Options remain outstanding, the Husband shall give the Wife notice of such forfeiture or loss and the Husband and the Wife shall each sustain a fifty percent (50%) share in the loss of his and her outstanding share in the Marital Options.
- 11. (a) It is the intention and agreement of the parties that, pursuant to the provisions of Section 1041 of the Internal Revenue Code, the transfers and payments between them pursuant to this Article are not taxable transactions to either party.

  Moreover it is the intention and agreement of the parties that such transfers and payments between them are not includible in the income of either the Wife or Husband pursuant to Sections 61 or 71(a) of the Code, and shall not be deductible by either the Wife or Husband pursuant to Section 215 of the Code. Both parties further agree that they shall not henceforth assert a position (in filing future tax returns) inconsistent with this Agreement or with this undertaking, and each will be liable to the other for damages, including taxes, penalties and interest, as well as reasonable attorneys' and accountants' and other professional fees, expenses and court costs, occasioned by breach of this covenant.

(b) In the event that the tax assumptions set forth in paragraph (a) of this paragraph should ever prove to be incorrect, the relevant provisions of this Agreement will be modified by the parties so as to approximate as closely as possible the after-tax effects to the parties anticipated by paragraph (a). If the parties have not so agreed within 30 days, one or both parties shall give notice of the failure to agree to Sagi Genger (or in his absence David A. Parnes, Esq.) who shall promptly appoint tax counsel in his discretion, subject to his fiduciary obligations to the parties, and such tax counsel shall have full authority to resolve the matter.

ARTICLE III

VALUATION OF TPR ASSETS FOLLOWING EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT

1. TPR has agreed, by resolutions of its Board of Directors (substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit III(1)), to be bound by the provisions of this Article III and the other provisions that contemplate action by it, and will cooperate with the Husband and the Wife in order to fulfill the provisions hereof.

A FUNDAMENTAL PART OF THIS AGREEMENT IS THE HUSBAND'S RELINQUISHMENT OF HIS OWNERSHIP OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK IN TPR, AND THE TRANSFER OF SUCH OWNERSHIP TO THE WIFE. THE PARTIES ARE UNABLE TO DETERMINE THE PRECISE VALUE OF TPR UPON EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT AND ARE RELYING AT THE TIME OF EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT ON TPR'S BOOK VALUE, AS SET FORTH ON SCHEDULE III(1).

- 2. The parties agree that the assets of TPR as listed on Schedule III(1) are divided into three (3) categories;
  - (i) Cash and marketable securities, designated as (Category A) on Schedule III(1).
  - (ii) Assets valued designated as (Category B) on Schedule III(1).
  - (iii) Assets as to which neither party accepts the valuation, designated as (Category C) on Schedule III(1).

The parties accept the value of the assets in Category A as binding upon them (subject to updating due to the passage of time).

- (a) The Husband represents to the Wife that TPR's total liabilities are no more than $10,000.
- (b) TPR, by its Chief Executive Officer or Vice President, within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of execution of this Agreement must notify the Husband, in writing, whether it accepts the value of the assets in Category B. Should TPR either (x) fail to notify its acceptance in writing or (y) express disagreement with the valuations of the assets in Category B, TPR will be obligated to sell the assets in its discretion, but subject to its duties to its shareholders, and the sales price will be definitive and binding upon the parties as the value of the assets in Category B.
- (c) All of the assets in Category C will either be (x) sold or (y) appraised, by an appraiser selected by Sagi Genger or David A. Parnes, Esq., as determined by TPR in its discretion, but subject to its duties to its shareholders. The sale or appraised value of each asset will be definitive and binding upon the parties as the value of the assets in Category C.

- (d) In the event that by the Second Anniversary there remains disagreement as to the valuation of assets in Category B, or if any assets in Category B or Category C have not been sold (the "Non Sold Assets"), the Husband and TPR agree to purchase or to sell, from or to, the other party such Non Sold Assets, in accordance with the following procedure:
  - (i) a coin will be tossed in the air, by Orly Genger or in her absence by a person mutually acceptable to the Husband and TPR;
  - (ii) the Husband will be designated as "Head" (i.e. the side of the coin where the profile of a person is impressed) and TPR will be designated as "Tail" (i.e. the other side of the coin);
  - (iii) if the Head side of the coin shall lay face up, the Husband will become the Evaluating Party for the first Non Sold Asset selected by the person tossing the coin, and if the Tail side of the coin shall lay face up, TPR shall become the Evaluating Party for the first Non Sold Asset selected by the person tossing the coin;
  - (iv) the Evaluating Party shall value and indicate in writing by the fifth business day following the coin toss to the other party, the sum at which it values such Non Sold Asset ("Evaluated NSA Value");
  - (v) by the fifth business day, following receipt of the Evaluated NSA Value from the Evaluating Party ("TPR Determination Date"), the other party shall notify the Evaluating Party in writing whether it intends to acquire from, or to sell to, the Evaluating Party its part of such Non Sold Asset, in which case the other party shall either remit to the Evaluating Party its Obligated Share (as defined below) of the Evaluated NSA Value or receive from the Evaluating Party its Obligated Share of the Evaluated NSA Value, within 30 business days following the TPR Determination Date against receipt of such Non Sold Asset. If the Evaluating Party does not deliver to the other party the Evaluated NSA Value, within 30 days of the TPR Determination Date, the other party shall be entitled to take the Non Sold Asset in question free of any payment or obligation.

In the event that there is more than one Non Sold Asset, the party who was not the Evaluation Party for the prior Non Sold Asset shall be entitled to select the next Non Sold Asset to be evaluated and shall be the Evaluating Party for such Non Sold Asset; and the procedures in paragraphs (iv) and (v) above shall be followed. The parties shall thereafter alternate selection of the Non Sold Asset for evaluation and acting as Evaluating Party as provided above, until all Non Sold Assets have been evaluated.

"Obligated Share" shall mean (a) for TPR, 26.48% and (b) for the Husband, 73.52%.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the parties agree that neither party is waiving any rights, claims, liabilities, causes of action or other obligations that may arise from a breach of any representation or any other term of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the representation contained in Article II(9)(a).

ARTICLE IX

judgments, expenses, executions, claims, and demands whatsoever, in law, admiralty or equity, known or unknown, which the Husband, the Husband's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns ever had or now has against the Wife, for, upon, or by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever from the beginning of the world to the day of the date of this Agreement, including (without limitation) claims with respect to all "separate property" and all "marital property" as those terms are defined in Section 236(B) of the Domestic Relations Law or arising out of the marital relationship, except for any cause of action for Divorce, Annulment or Separation and any defenses thereto.

Husband, the Husband's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns from all actions, causes of action, suits, debts, dues, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, expenses, executions, claims, and demands whatsoever, in law, admiralty or equity, known or unknown, which the Husband, the Husband's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns ever had or now has against the Wife, for, upon, or by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever from the beginning of the world to the day of the date of this Agreement, including (without limitation) claims with respect to all "separate property" and all "marital property" as those terms are defined in Section 236(B) of the Domestic Relations Law or arising out of the marital relationship, except for (a) any amounts that may be due pursuant to the audits referred to in Article XII and (b) any cause of action for Divorce, Annulment or Separation and any defenses thereto.

- 3. Each of the parties recognizes the existence of certain imbalances,.

  resulting from (a) inequality of distribution of marital assets prior to the date of this

  Agreement; (b) the unequal bearing of marital expenses prior to the date of this

  Agreement; and (c) the misuse by the Husband of marital IRA or other retirement funds for the purchase of Lumenis stock. Each party agrees to disregard such past imbalances, and to release the other, forever and for all purposes whatsoever from, any and all rights and claims arising from such past imbalances.

- 4. Each party waives, renounces, grants, remises and releases to the other, forever and for all purposes whatsoever any and all rights and claims against the other's estate including dower, curtesy and community property rights and interests, any right of election under the relevant provisions of the Estates, Powers and Trusts Law of the State of New York ("EPTL") or similar laws of other States or jurisdictions, domestic or foreign, including, without limitation, EPTL Sections 5-1.1-A and 5-3.1 or under the laws of testacy or intestacy (including, without limitation, EPTL Sections 4-1.1) in any jurisdiction whatsoever, which he or she ever had, now has or may hereafter acquire in the real or personal property or estate of the other, wherever situated and whether acquired before or subsequent to the date of this Agreement, by reason of inheritance or descent or by virtue of any decedent estate law or any other statute or custom, or arising of the marital relationship, or for any other reason whatsoever.

- 7. Each of the parties irrevocably and irrebuttably renounces any right of administration upon the estate of the other or nomination by the other as estate representative, contained in the other party's Will.
- 8. Neither party shall object to the probate of the other's Will, and in the event that either party dies intestate, the surviving party shall allow administration upon the estate and personal effects of the deceased party to be taken and received by any person who would have been entitled thereto had the surviving party predeceased the deceased party unmarried.

10. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this

Agreement shall bar a claim on the part of either party for any cause arising out of a

ARTICLE XI

RESIDENCE AND NONINTERFERENCE

- It is, and shall be, lawful for the Husband and Wife at all times to reside from time at such places as each may see fit and to contract, carry on and engage in any employment, profession, business or trade, which either may deem fit, free from control, restraint or interference, direct or indirect, by the other in all respects as if and she were single and unmarried.
- 2. Neither the Husband nor the Wife shall in any way molest, disturb, trouble, or interfere with the peace and comfort of the other or compel or seek to compel the other to associate, cohabit or dwell with him or her by any action or proceeding for restoration of conjugal rights or by any means whatsoever.
- 3. The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not in any way limit the ability of the Husband or the Wife to enforce his or her rights with respect to breach of any representation or any other breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other party, as provided in Article XIII.

ARTICLE XII

THE WIFE'S RIGHT TO CERTAIN AUDITS OF THE HUSBAND'S ASSETS

1. On the Wife's request, upon not less than ten (10) business days' written notice, the Husband shall allow the Wife to audit his assets and liabilities as of the date of commencement of the parties' matrimonial action, i.e. January 31, 2002, as set forth on Schedule II(1) annexed hereto and made part hereof and as of the date of this Agreement in order to test the correctness and completeness of the items included on such Schedules

(including contingent liabilities) and the values assigned to each such item based on all information available at the time of audit.

- (a) The Wife shall be entitled to conduct a total of five (5) such audits during the Husband's lifetime.
  - (b) Each such audit is to be conducted by a reputable accounting firm.
  - (i) Within two (2) weeks of the date of execution of this Agreement, the Husband will provide the Wife with the names of two accounting firms and the principals thereof who will be acceptable to the Husband to perform all of the audits. If the Wife chooses one of those accounting firms and principals, that firm and principal will conduct the audits when requested by the Wife in accordance with the guidelines set forth herein.
  - principals, the Husband shall have the right on one occasion and only one occasion prior to the commencement of an audit to reject the Wife's selection of any other accounting firm to conduct the audits. Provided that the Husband has not previously exercised that right, he may do so on any of the remaining audits. If the Husband elects to exercise that right, the Wife may not utilize the rejected firm in that or any other audit.
- (c) The Husband will cooperate, and will cause persons under his control to cooperate, with the auditors and will promptly furnish such documents as the auditors may request from time to time. It is expressly understood that the auditors' document requests may relate to matters up to and including the date of the audit.

- (d) Such audits shall be at the Wife's sole expense, except that if the audits find assets not previously disclosed by the Husband on Schedule II(1) with a cumulative value greater than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), the Husband will be responsible for the entire reasonable cost of all audits which may have been performed.
- 2. (a) If the audits, individually or cumulatively, find that the Husband owned any property on January 31, 2002, which is not listed on Schedule II(1), the Husband will pay to the Wife one-half (1/2) of the value of that property.
- (b) In addition, if the audits, individually or cumulatively, find assets not listed on Schedule II(1) with a cumulative value greater than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then (i) such error will be presumed willful on the Husband's part, and (ii) the Husband will pay to the Wife one-half (1/2) of three (3) times of that value (in addition to paying audit expenses as provided above). However, the Husband will have the opportunity to rebut the presumption of willful error at an arbitration conducted in accordance with Article XIII and at his expense by a "preponderance of evidence" test. If the Husband has previously made payments pursuant to subparagraph 2 (a) of this Article, in respect of those assets, he shall receive a credit therefor against the amounts owed pursuant to this subparagraph (b).
- (c) If the Wife conducts a third audit, (i) after two consecutive audits have failed to find assets not listed on Schedule II(1) or have failed to find a difference in assets between the first and second of such consecutive audits of more than twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000), and (ii) the third audit fails to find assets not listed on such Schedule or finds a difference of less than twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000) from the previous two audits, then the Wife will be liable to the Husband for his reasonable expenses incurred as a consequence of cooperating with the third consecutive audit.

- (d) If the Husband disputes the results of any audits or asserts that the cumulative errors (if greater than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000)) were not willful, the dispute will be determined by arbitration as is provided in Article XIII of this Agreement.
- (e) Any payments due under paragraphs 2 (a) and (b) above shall be made in cash within 60 days of the later of the completion of the audit or the receipt of the arbitration decision.

ARTICLE XIII

GOVERNING LAW AND ARBITRATION

- 1. This Agreement will be governed and interpreted in accordance with laws of the State of New York, without application of its conflicts of law provisions. This provision for arbitration shall be specifically enforceable by the parties.

  Any controversy, claim or dispute between the parties directly or indirectly arising out of this Agreement shall be finally settled by arbitration as provided herein. Either party may give written notification to the other party requesting arbitration to resolve any controversy, claim or dispute arising out of this Agreement between the parties.
- 2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 of this Article, any award rendered by the Arbitrator (as defined below) may be confirmed in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraphs of this Article, either party may file a claim for temporary emergency relief or other temporary remedies not otherwise available through arbitration, in a court of competent jurisdiction, without first having to arbitrate the dispute, provided that such claim for injunctive relief arises from an alleged breach of a specific term of this Agreement.

- 3. In the event that a dispute is submitted to arbitration, there shall be one (1) arbitrator (the "Arbitrator") selected (x) by the parties or (y) if the parties fail to select an Arbitrator within twenty (20) days following receipt of a list of potential arbitrators from the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), the Arbitrator shall be selected by the AAA. The Arbitration shall be conducted as promptly as practicable after the selection of the Arbitrator in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures. The Arbitrator shall be someone who has at least fifteen (15) years of commercial law experience or who was a judge of a court of general jurisdiction.
- (a) The arbitration hearing shall be held in Manhattan, New York, pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures, except where those rules conflict with the provisions of this Article, in which case the provisions of this Article shall control.
- (b) The Arbitrator shall arrange a hearing at a mutually agreeable time and location in Manhattan, New York, which hearing shall be not less than thirty (30) calendar days, and not more than sixty (60) calendar days, after the date on which the Arbitrator was appointed.
- (c) The parties shall each have the right to submit documents, testimony, information, data and memoranda to the Arbitrator in support of their respective positions.
- (d) Within sixty (60) calendar days after such hearing, the Arbitrator shall render a decision with respect to the dispute.

- (e) The party against whom the Arbitrator found shall bear the total costs, Arbitrator's fees and other expenses of the arbitration between the parties, including the legal fees borne by the other party in bringing or defending the action.
- 4. The Arbitrator shall have the authority to require the submission (at hearing or otherwise) of such documents, information, testimony, and other items as the Arbitrator may deem necessary to make a fair and reasonable decision, including the authority to issue subpoenas and similar process to compel production of such documents, information, testimony and other items.
- 5. Subject to the remaining provisions of this paragraph 5, any award rendered by the Arbitrator shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties hereto; provided, however, that any such award shall be accompanied by a written opinion of the Arbitrator giving the reasons for the award.
- (a) The findings of the Arbitrator may not change the express terms of this Agreement and shall be consistent with the Arbitrator's belief as to what findings a court of proper jurisdiction would have made in applying the applicable law to the facts underlying the dispute.
- (b) There shall be no right of appeal from the Arbitrator's determination unless the Arbitrator shall not have complied with the provisions of this Article.
- (c) The Arbitrator shall have no authority to award relief in excess of what this Agreement provides. Moreover, the Arbitrator shall have no authority to award non-monetary or equitable relief.

- 4. The Husband acknowledges that (x) he has made inquiry into the financial circumstances of the Wife to the extent that he wishes to do so, and (y) that he cannot appropriately make a claim against the Wife by reason of her non-willful failure to disclose or his failure of knowledge of the financial circumstances of the Wife;

ARTICLE XVI

POSSIBLE INVALIDITY

If any provision of this Agreement, for any reason whatsoever, be declared invalid or unenforceable by any Court of competent jurisdiction, by statute or governmental regulation, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of such provision to any person or situations, other than those as to which such provision may have been held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby and shall continue to be enforced to the fullest extent that such severance of the invalid portions is possible without vitiating the original intent and purposes and economic intentions of the parties (the "Original Intent"), as herein set forth. If it shall appear impossible or impracticable to continue this Agreement in force after such severance, then and in such event, the parties hereto each undertake and agree that they will, upon request of the other party, make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments which may be lawfully effective to again reflect the parties Original Intent, without diminishing the rights of the parties or increasing their obligations, financial or otherwise, herein. In the event a provision is superseded under this Article XVI, either party may seek reformation of the affected provision in any court of competent jurisdiction, which shall be empowered to revise the provision to reflect the parties' Original Intent to the greatest extent possible, consistent with New York law. It is the intention of the parties hereto that this provision may be enforced in equity in addition to, and not to the exclusion of, any other remedies which may be available to the parties. The parties do not intend by this paragraph to imply the illegality, invalidity and/or unenforceability of any term, provision, article or paragraph of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XVII

RECONCILIATION AND MATRIMONIAL DECREES

- 1. Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, each of the parties will execute and deliver to the other, and in the future will promptly execute and deliver (without further consideration) to the other:

including, but not limited to, their Divorce Action. A listing of the said restraining orders and injunctions is annexed as Schedule XVII(1)(a).

- (ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1(a)(i), the Husband will pay the Wife maintenance of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for the month during which this Agreement is executed and for one month thereafter, and his obligation to pay maintenance under prior orders in the Divorce Action will cease upon the thirtieth (30th) day of the month following the month during which this Agreement is executed, provided all maintenance for prior months has been paid in full.

- (d) All documents reasonably necessary to facilitate the immediate grant to the Wife, on papers, of an undefended divorce on the grounds of the Husband's constructive abandonment of the Wife.
- 2. This Agreement shall not be invalidated or otherwise affected by a reconciliation or a resumption of marital relations between the parties unless they have executed and acknowledged (with the same formality as this Agreement) a written statement expressly setting forth that they are canceling this Agreement. Accordingly, this Agreement will not be terminated, annulled or modified by (a) the parties' resumption of cohabitation and/or sexual relationships even if on a permanent basis or (b) the parties' actual remarriage (irrespective of whether or not that marriage ever ends).

- 3. This Agreement shall not be invalidated or otherwise affected by any decree or judgment made in any Court in any pending or future action or proceeding between the parties.
- 4. - 4. The parties may at any time amend, modify or annul this Agreement (in the manner set forth in paragraph 3 of this Article) without the consent of any third person and no third person shall be deemed to have been given any interest or

Re: Assignment by TPR of D&K LP's 1993 Promissory Note

Dear David,

This will set in writing what I recently proposed to you:

I fully acknowledge the commitment to you to sponsor your MBA studies;

Instead of making the next payment due, in connection with the MBA fees approximately $12,000), TPR Investment Associates Inc. ("TPR") will assign to you a promissory note made in its favor by D&K LP ("Note").

whis promissory Note will be assigned to you on an 'as is' basis.

- D&K LP and its partners have a variety of claims against TPR, and deny the enforceability of the Note.
- 5. Collections by you on the Note will be deposited into a separate account, preferably with a mutually acceptable escrow agent. Such amounts collected will be released to you on the earlier of (a) December 31, 2013, or (b) your declaration that you will make no further claims in connection with the Note.
- 6. D&K will refrain from making claims against TPR, so long as the Note is not enforced by you against it. However, should your collection efforts result in D&K making a counter-claim against TPR the funds in the escrow account will be applied towards TPR's defense and any other related outlays, before making any distributions therefrom.
- 7. You will not assign the Note to any third party without the consent of D&K and TPR.

August 2, 2006

- 8. TPR will retain the right to 7.5% of your net collections and the right to enforce the note.
- 9. Additional terms in connection with the assignment of the Note will follow.

Be advised that we hereby waive all past, present or future existing conflict of interest we may have.

Exhibit I

January 10, 2009

Dear Mom,

I understand that my petition to appoint Martin Coleman as Trustee of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust ("Trust") has been denied. My attorneys are reviewing the decision and considering all of my options, including whether to appeal.

For now, and until further notice, it is my strong desire to retain all of the shares of Trans-Resources, Inc. ("TRI") that are currently in the Trust, and I direct you not to sell them. If you are approached, or have been approached, with an offer to purchase any of the TRI shares in the Trust, please notify me immediately. If, despite my wishes, you consider accepting an offer, do not sell any shares until I have a reasonable period of time to maximize the benefit to the Trust, including possible alternative transactions.

As you know, the Trust's TRI shares are subject to an Irrevocable Proxy, dated as of October 29, 2004, in favor of my father, Arie Genger, as well as a voting trust letter agreement with a back-up form of voting trust agreement and voting trust certificate delivered in connection with the Proxy. Copies of those documents are attached. If anyone approaches you about the TRI shares, I insist that you inform them of these facts, and provide them with a copy of this letter and attached documents.

SURROGATE'S COURT : NEW YORK COUNTY

----- X
In the Matter of the Trust Established on December 13, 1993, by ARIE GENGER for the Benefit of ORLY GENGER.

File No. 0017/2008

ROTH, S.

This is a contested application by the primary beneficiary (Orly Genger) of an irrevocable inter vivos trust established by her father, Arie Genger, seeking the appointment of a successor trustee or, alternatively, the appointment of a "special trustee" to investigate alleged wrongdoing concerning the trust.

Petitioner's mother, Dalia Genger (grantor's former wife), contends that she is the duly appointed successor trustee and that there is no basis to appoint another fiduciary for any purpose.

The trust agreement, dated December 13, 1993, provides for discretionary income and principal distributions to Orly for life with remainder to her descendants or, if none, to the grantor's descendants in trust.

Article SEVENTH (B), (D), (E), and (G) of the trust instrument sets forth the following procedure for the resignation of trustees and the appointment of their successors.

A trustee may resign by delivering a signed and acknowledged instrument of resignation in person or by certified or registered mail to the other trustee and to either the grantor or the income beneficiary. Such resignation is effective upon the receipt of the acknowledged instrument by the other trustee (if there is one) and the grantor or the income beneficiary or at such later date as may be specified in the instrument.

A trustee may appoint his or her successor by delivering a signed and acknowledged instrument in the same manner as described above for resignation. Any such appointment, however, is valid only if the appointee qualifies by delivering a signed and acknowledged instrument of acceptance in person or by certified or registered mail to each trustee and the grantor or the income beneficiary within 30 days after the later of 1) the date on which a copy of the appointment instrument is delivered to him or her, and 2) the effective date of the appointment as set forth in the appointment instrument. It is observed that there is no provision that requires a resigning trustee to appoint a successor or that there always be two trustees in office.

The original two trustees served until October 2004, when they resigned and appointed David Parnes and Eric Gribitz as their successors. On February 12, 2007, Mr. Gribitz resigned without appointing a successor. On April 26, 2007, Mr. Parnes resigned and appointed as his successor Leah Fang in a signed and acknowledged instrument. Although Ms. Fang noted her acceptance at the bottom of such instrument, her signature was not acknowledged. However, in another document entitled "Release" executed and acknowledged by Ms. Fang the same day, she, as trustee, purported to discharge Mr. Parnes from liability. It is undisputed that thereafter Ms. Fang acted as trustee. Indeed, Ms. Fang's contention that she received a number of requests for information from petitioner and that petitioner referred to her in writing and orally as trustee is not disputed by petitioner.

On December 12, 2007, Ms. Fang, without resigning in accordance with the trust agreement, attempted to appoint Patricia Enriquez, as successor trustee. Her designation of Ms. Enriquez, however, was by an unacknowledged letter in which she referred to her own resignation as taking effect upon Ms. Enriquez's acceptance of the appointment. Ms. Enriquez accepted by signing the letter, but such acceptance was not acknowledged and, in any event, there is nothing in the record to suggest that such "acceptance" was delivered in accordance with the trust instrument. Two weeks later, an attorney for Ms. Enriquez notified petitioner's counsel by email that her client had advised that she had no intention to overcome the procedural omissions.

On January 3, 2008, Ms. Fang and Dalia Genger signed before a notary a memorandum in which Ms. Fang stated that "to the extent that I am still vested with any powers to appoint trustees of the [trust], I confirm your appointment." The next day, Ms. Fang executed an acknowledged instrument of resignation and appointment of successor trustee naming Dalia as her successor and Dalia, on the same day, executed an acknowledged instrument of acceptance. It is undisputed that such documents were delivered in accordance with the trust requirements.

We address first that portion of the instant application which seeks the appointment of a successor trustee on the ground that Dalia was not validly appointed. In such connection, petitioner argues first that, because Ms. Fang's signature on the bottom of Mr. Parnes's appointment instrument was not acknowledged, she never accepted the position in accordance with the trust agreement (and thus could not appoint Dalia her successor). However, such argument ignores the "Release" mentioned above that Ms. Fang executed the same day. Such instrument, which was signed and duly acknowledged, unequivocally establishes Ms. Fang's acceptance of the position. Since petitioner does not challenge the authenticity of such instrument or Mr. Parnes' contention, supported by the record, that it was delivered in accordance with the trust instrument and, as noted above, petitioner thereafter communicated with Ms. Fang as trustee, Ms. Fang properly qualified as successor trustee.

Petitioner's second argument that, in any event, Ms. Fang's appointment of Dalia was ineffective because Ms. Fang had previously resigned as trustee is also without merit. Simply put, Ms. Fang had not previously resigned because her letter to Ms. Enriquez did not contain the formalities (i.e., an acknowledgment) required by the trust agreement. Moreover, although not a model of clarity, the letter makes clear that Ms. Fang did not intend to leave the trust without a trustee in the event that Ms. Enriquez failed to qualify, which is exactly what happened. Thus, Ms. Fang had authority to appoint Dalia as her successor.

Since there is no dispute that the instrument of resignation and appointment executed by Ms. Fang on January 4, 2008, and Dalia's instrument of acceptance of the same date were executed and delivered in accordance with the trust agreement, Dalia is the duly appointed successor trustee of the trust. To find otherwise would be to ignore the chronology of events and the purpose of the provisions at issue, namely to ensure that the trust always has a fiduciary ready, willing and able to act. The fact that petitioner does not wish her mother to be the fiduciary because she considers her an adversary in a broader intra-family dispute does not provide a basis to ignore the grantor's intent, as reflected in the trust instrument, that an acting trustee, and not the beneficiary, decides who shall become a successor trustee. Accordingly, petitioner's application to appoint a successor trustee is denied.

We next turn to petitioner's alternate request for relief, namely that a "special trustee" be appointed for the "purpose of investigation and taking discovery with respect to the wrongful dealings concerning the assets and income of the trust."

It is noted initially that petitioner's only allegations of "wrongful dealings" concern a close corporation, TPR Investment Associates, Inc. She contends that her brother Sagi, who is an officer of TPR, and Dalia, who was a shareholder at the time this proceeding was commenced, are engaged in a "wrongful scheme" to divert assets to themselves and, as a result, Dalia "could not possibly" investigate wrongdoing at TPR, which the petition describes as the "greatest" asset of the trust.

However, the premise of the application, namely that the trust's interest in TPR would enable the trustee to investigate or seek relief from TPR, does not appear to be correct.

Petitioner does not dispute Dalia's assertion, supported in the record, that the trust is not a shareholder of TPR at all.

Rather, D&K LP, an entity in which the trust owns a 48 percent interest, in turn owns approximately 50 percent of TPR.

Petitioner does not explain what appears to be a material misstatement concerning TPR's relationship to the trust. Nor does she identify how a trustee under such circumstances might be in a position to "investigate and address the TPR issues".

In any event, assuming arguendo that a trustee would somehow be able to investigate alleged misconduct at TPR, petitioner's vague and speculative allegations of "wrongful conduct" at TPR from which Dalia purportedly benefitted do not warrant the appointment of a "special trustee". Similarly, petitioner's allegations (made upon information and belief) that Dalia had knowledge of alleged improper acts by former trustee, David Parnes, in relation to TPR are patently insufficient to warrant the remedy of a "special trustee". In such connection, it is noted that Mr. Parnes and Ms. Fang have been directed to account for their proceedings as trustees (Matter of Genger, NYLJ, Feb. 25, 2008, at 29, col 3), giving petitioner a forum to seek relief for most of the conduct about which she complains.

Finally, it is observed that petitioner has not alleged that Dalia has refused a request for information, which would warrant relief (SCPA 2102), or has failed as trustee to protect trust assets. Indeed, it appears that Dalia (who states that she is ready and able to act as fiduciary) has yet to assume the duties of trustee in deference to her daughter's position in this litigation. As a validly appointed trustee, she should be given the opportunity to do what she deems necessary to manage and protect the trust's assets.

Based upon the foregoing, the appointment of a "special trustee" is unwarranted at this time and, accordingly, the application is denied, without prejudice to renewal if future circumstances warrant such relief.

This decision constitutes the order of the court.

Re: Orly Genger 1993 Trust

Dear Ms. Siegel-Baum:

I write to respond to your May 14th letter to my client, Dalia Genger in her capacity as Trustee of The 1993 Orly Genger Trust (the Trust).

May I start by expressing Mrs. Genger's understanding about the concern that your client, Orly Genger, has about the effect her interests of the various lawsuits your letter mentions. Mrs. Genger has the same concern, particularly since, as we understand it, the Glenclova action raises the issue of whether the transfer to the Trust of shares of Trans-Resources, Inc. (TRI) was invalid under the TRI shareholders' agreement.

Having shared that concern, I would like to respond to your letter in narrative form, rather that in the form a response to a litigation demand for production.

All TRI shares are, I am informed, held for the benefit of the shareholders by TRI. Thus Mrs. Genger does not physically possess a share certificate. I am informed that the absence of such a certificate did not prevent The Sagi Genger Trust from selling the shares it was given.

As your client knows, Mrs. Genger became Trustee January 4, 2008, as successor trustee to Leah Fang. Ms. Fang has an accounting pending in Surrogate's Court, New York County, File No. 0017/2008.

Mrs. Genger has not taken any action as Trustee and has not received any dividends or other property or assets in respect of the TRI shares.

As your client knows, D & K LP pledged its 240 shares of the stock of TPR Investment Associates, Inc. (TPR) to secure its December 21, 1993 Note to TPR in the principal amount of $8,950,000. I believe that your client has the D&K organization papers; if not I'll be glad to copy them for you at your expense, as they're about an inch think. By notice dated 8/31/2008, TPR declared that Note to be in default and subsequently sold the TPR shares for $2,200,000 on February 27, 2009. I attach papers concerning this transaction.

As a result of the foreclosure, the TRI shares are the Trust's only asset.

To date, Mrs. Genger has not filed and fiduciary tax returns, nor submitted any of her expenses for reimbursement by the Trust nor taken any commissions.

In response to your email dated June 10, 2009, we are prepared to meet with you and Dalia, at our offices, if you agree to the following:

- 1. You agree that Orly will not be present at the meeting. Based upon prior meetings Orly has advised us that her involvement in this meeting will be too emotionally difficult.
- 2. Dalia stipulates, in writing, that she will not, under any circumstances and until we resolve our differences, sell, transfer or remove the TRI shares from the Orly Trust. In January 2009 Orly advised Dalia of her strong desire to retain all of the TRI shares currently held by the Orly Trust and specifically directed Dalia not to sell them.

If you agree to the above, we are prepared to schedule a meeting for early next week and are available after 4 p.m. on June 16th and after 2 p.m. on June 17th. - 1. I am the Plaintiff in this action, and submit this affidavit in support of my application that this Court hold my ex-husband, Arie Genger ("Arie"), in contempt for his willful failure to comply with the instructions issued by our son, Sagi Genger ("Sagi"), the attorney-in-fact. The facts stated herein are based upon my personal knowledge unless otherwise stated.
- 2. Concurrent with the execution of the Stipulation of Settlement (the "Stipulation") dated October 30, 2004 between Arie and me, it was understood that Sagi would act as Chief Executive Officer of TPR in order to execute various documents required under the Stipulation. It was also understood that the note (the "D&K Note") issued by D&K Limited Partnership dated December 21, 1993, in the principal sum of $8,950,000 and payable to TPR, which was attached as an Exhibit to the Stipulation, would be saleable by Sagi Genger for as little as $10,000. Simultaneous with the execution of the Stipulation, the Board of TPR executed a Board Resolution which gave effect to these understandings. Arie's counsel reviewed the Board Resolution prior to its execution. He did not state any objection to the Board Resolution, and was satisfied that the Board Resolution reflected the parties' understanding and agreement. A true and correct copy of the Board Resolution is attached hereto. Although the Board Resolution is dated October 31, 2004, it was executed on October 30, 2004.

- 3. The purpose of the D&K Note Board Resolution was to carry out our understanding that I not be in the position to foreclose on the D&K Note, and to take for myself an interest that Arie and I intended for the children.

Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09

THE COURT: On the record.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Good morning, Your Honor. My name is Judith Siegel-Baum from Cozen O'Connor. And I represent the Petitioner, Orly Genger.

MS. LEHMAN: I'm Stephanie Lehman. I also represent the Petitioner, Orly Genger.

MR. MEISTER: Good morning. Robert A. Meister, from Pedowitz & Meister, LLP, representing Dahlia Genger, as Trustee of the Orly Genger Trust.

THE COURT: Good morning. So, I apologize you were a little delayed. We had to set up the recording device, and that took us a little while. So, just so the record is clear, this is the matter of -- the application of Orly Genger to remove the fiduciary order to show cause with TRO Calendar Number 1 on today's calendar, 0017 of '08.

So, the order to show cause was brought. I did not sign it, because I wanted to hear from the parties first in terms of whether or not obviously it should be signed, and whether or not there should be the temporary restraints, as well as the relief sought by the parties. So, we'll begin there.

My question, is what's the urgency? I mean I'm not really clear what exactly is the urgency in this matter.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Your Honor, what happened here is that we represented Orly Genger. Now, as the Court probably is aware, there was a prior proceeding that was brought, and we were retained after that decision came down. And in the prior decision, Judge Roth had said that there wasn't evidence for — enough evidence, documentary evidence, for removal. However, if we were going to proceed again, and if we wanted to bring a 2102 proceeding, that we could bring this application again. So, our firm was prepared to bring a 2102 proceeding.

We sent a demand letter to Mrs. Genger and what happened is, is we received a letter from her counsel, Mr. Meister, which enclosed in the letter was an indication that an asset of the trust, okay, had been -- and I'm not going to get into all the details because they're in the papers. But it had been sold at a very -- or an indirect asset had been sold at a discounted value, and the trust it had an interest, an indirect interest in shares in TPR stock.

And there was also a note, which was a liability of the trust, but it had been sold deeply discounted. And as a result the note, which ultimately would have become an asset of the trust was now a debt. And the interest in TPR had totally been depleted from the trust, which had a value at that time.

Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09

Now, it turned out that Mrs. Genger had -- or should have had knowledge of this impending sale. It happened four months ago and she had already come before this Court. She knew she had an asset in this trust; she knew she had to protect it; but it turned out that her son had actually bought the 240 shares. He got them back as collateral, and he depleted the value of the note in the trust. And what happened is we got nothing for it; he bought the stock back at a very low, low rate. This caused alarm to us.

So, I had sent a letter and we had met -- Mr.

Meister and I had met, and I had sent a letter to him saying, "Look, we won't do anything about this. We'll try to work things out. But I need to have some type of an assurance from your client that she will not do anything with what I can see is now the only asset left in the trust, the TRI stock, because I need to protect this asset because everything else has been depleted and I'll have to bring a removal proceeding. But in the meantime, this is what we need to do.

Although he agreed to meet with me, he would not stipulate to agree not to sell the stock or do anything with the stock. He was silent on it. At which point I had no other alternative than to come here because I knew no other relief I could get to protect the asset while we find out what is going on and what has happened to everything.

Now, in 2008, in the beginning of 2008, Mrs. Genger was appointed the trustee of the Orly Trust. The removal proceeding was brought and she said she would act -- she filed an affidavit in this Court in January saying she was acting on Orly's behalf and everything was going to be done to protect her assets, and that she was going to be an independent trustee, and she was going to be a good trustee.

Well, what happened is, is a few months later -and my feeling is, as a trustee, when you're protecting someone else's property, if you think something is happening that may not be in the beneficiary's interest, the least you do, is bring an application for advice and direction to this Court. Because by doing nothing as trustee, it's as bad as if you were acting in your own interest.

And what happened is, is at the beginning of these trusts, before this litigation started, both the Orly Trust and the Segie Trust, and the children's father, had a majority interest in a company called TRI. Unbeknownst to Orly, the Segie Trust, which at that time his sister-in-law was trustee at that time, sold his interest in TRI for almost $27 million to the Trump Group, which gave them a majority interest. Now, what happened is, is that depleted the value of Orly's shares in her trust because it was now a minority interest. And at the time their father had had the voting power. Now, it's gone. It's disappeared.

And one of the issues, which I think is very important here, is once either, I would assume, and I cannot prove it, that Mrs. Genger knew about this before. But once she knew about it, she was obligated to do something to protect this asset.

Then we had the default on the note, and that the trust lost it's indirect shares of TPR stock. And now what's happened is it's really owned by an entity that's controlled by their son, Segie; Dahlia's son, Segie. And what happened is, is that Orly has nothing in her trust. So, the fact is, is the first thing that a fiduciary has to do is protect the asset.

Now, Mrs. Genger has come in as the fourth substitute trustee of the Orly Trust. The first two -- and at the time of the Genger's divorce, Mrs. Genger insisted that the originally appointed trustees of these trusts resign.

The first two trustees who came in were friends of their son, Segie; they were school friends. And one of them sold -- assumed this DNK-note for $12,000, which was worth $10 million. And then there was something that happened that I don't understand. An accounting has been

1	compelled; the person hasn't accounted yet. But he somehow
2	gave the note back in order to and have his MBA degree
3	paid for. And then he resigned as trustee. Now, this is
4	before I was in the proceeding, and it seems to me we're
5	going to have to go after him too.
6	Then the next person who comes in is a woman
7	named Leah Fang, who is
8	THE COURT: But wasn't all of this addressed
9	before Judge Roth? I mean I'm trying to get to the
10	present.
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay, after
12	THE COURT: So, everything you're mentioning and
13	you're alluding to, this was already addressed before Judg
14	Roth
15	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, it
16	THE COURT: and she rendered a decision in
17	terms of all of these matters.
18	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: But now we have found out that
19	there were two other there's another incident that
20	occurred with this note that Judge Roth didn't know
21	anything about because it happened after that hearing.
22	THE COURT: No, I recognize that.
23	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: The TRI did too. But now our
24	concern is, this is to impose the restraint during the
25	pendency of this action or in the event that we could work

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 8
1	it out in some way. What is the big deal to Mrs. Genger?
2	It's nothing. It means she won't sell the stock.
3	THE COURT: Everything you've referred to, other
4	than the note since Judge Roth's decision has nothing to do
5	with Mrs. Genger.
6	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, the note has a lot to do
7	with her.
8	THE COURT: Yeah, I said other than the note.
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yes.
10	THE COURT: Right.
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: But I also think that once she
12	found out about what happened with the TRI stock, she had
13	to do something to notify her daughter of what was going on
14	in addition to the fact I mean I think her actions have
15	been somewhat hostile to her daughter because they haven't
16	protected anything that she's had.
17	THE COURT: So, you're saying she should have
18	called her daughter and said this just happened with this
19	TRI stock?
20	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yeah, I think she should have
21	tried to protect her interest in TRI. Now, it's worth
22	less. Why has she not gone or come to this Court and said
23	you know this is what the asset was. An action was done by
24	a third-party that's made it
25	THE COURT: Aren't you placing greater

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 9
1	responsibility on her as a fiduciary then what her duties
2	are; what the statute provides?
3	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I think she has that
4	responsibility.
5	THE COURT: Based on what?
6	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Based upon the fact that she is
7	holding an asset remember, this started as a family to
8	start with.
9	THE COURT: No, I know. Based upon what case
10	law; based upon what statute?
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, I think this is so
12	typical of the Rothco case. I think it was decided
13	THE COURT: It's so typical of?
14	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Of the Rothco case that was
15	decided in this Court 35 years ago. You know one trustee
16	was supposedly an alleged disinterested trustee. And what
17	happened was the two others were clearly self-dealing. But
18	this Court said we need a restraint; we need to stop the
19	sale of these paintings; and we need to remove all of them,
20	because
21	THE COURT: I don't think it rises to that level.
22	But, counsel, what is your position in terms of the asset?
23	What I'm concerned with is, is this the only asset right
24	now in the trust is the TRI stock?
25	MS. MEISTER: That's correct, Your Honor, the TRI

10 Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 1 stock. THE COURT: And what's the approximate value, do 2 3 you know? 4 MR. MEISTER: Well, whatever value it has, it's approximately 191/2 percent interest in this company called 5 TRI; it's a minority interest. It's not a publicly traded 6 company. In fact there are two other litigations pending, 7 one of which challenges whether the sale to the trust in 8 the first place and the sale to the other trust as well was 9 10 a violation of the shareholder action -- of the 11 shareholder's agreement. And there's another action or perhaps it's a 12 counterclaim pending to enforce an irrevocable life-time 13 proxy that each of the two trusts signed in favor of the 14 father. So, we're sitting with an illiquid chunk of stock, 15 which is a minority chunk, in a corporation governed by a 16 shareholder agreement, where there are two pending actions, 17 one which is to enforce the irrevocable trust giving 18 someone else voting power over this block of stock. And 19 the other challenges whether the sale to the trust was in 20 itself a violation of the shareholder agreement. 21 THE COURT: Right. So, the question becomes, you 22 23 couldn't sell it any how?

MR. MEISTER: Well, you certainly couldn't sell it on the market.

25

Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09

11

THE COURT: Right. 1 MR. MEISTER: You might be able to sell it to one 2 3 of the parties --4 THE COURT: Internally. MR. MEISTER: -- who already owns the stock. 5 THE COURT: Exactly. 6 MR. MEISTER: And presumably nobody else would be 7 interested in it anyway. It doesn't pay dividends. 8 THE COURT: So, when counsel notified you asking 9 you know that you stipulate or agree not to sell it, what 10 11 was the problem? MR. MEISTER: Well, first, with much respect to 12 my colleague, that's not my recollection of the meeting. 13 What my recollection of the meeting was that she demanded, 14 without any legal basis, that somehow Mrs. Genger as 15 trustee of this trust do something to equalize the value of 16 this trust with the other trust, which Mrs. Genger was 17 never trustee of, who sold a comparable block of stock for 18 some twenty plus million dollars. Which I didn't 19 understand how a trustee of Trust-A, could somehow get 20 money from the other Trust that it had sold stock from, 21 which it didn't participate in. 22 In terms of the immediacy, Your Honor's first 23 question, there is no offer by anyone to purchase this 24 stock. We're perfectly willing if we receive an offer, to 25

12 Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 notify counsel for Orly Genger. I'll use the first names, 1 if I may, except when it's the same name. In fact if we 2 get such an offer, if we should be so lucky. 3 THE COURT: Well, has there been any -- have you 4 made any inquiries in terms of attempts to sell the stock? 5 MR. MEISTER: My understanding, Your Honor, is 6 that there's an injunction from the Delaware Chancery 7 Court, which precludes anyone from making an offer -- any 8 of the other parties who are before that Court, which 9 precludes anyone from signing a contract without giving 10 everyone else five days written notice. 11 THE COURT: And again, these are the only 12 individuals who would be able to purchase the stock, is 13 14 that correct? MR. MEISTER: Under the shareholder's agreement, 15 which we're not a party to., I believe that's correct. 16 other words, if Your Honor or I wish to buy this stock, 17 presumably someone would say it's a violation of the 18 shareholder's agreement. 19 THE COURT: And you would not --20 MR. MEISTER: Indeed someone said this very trust 21 purchase of the stock was a violation of the shareholder's agreement. The trust is not a party to that action, and I've seen no need to rush into the Lion's Den on that one.

24

25

THE COURT: Well, I don't see the problem then.

only states sale, but also would talk about any type of -of using it as a mortgage or collateral -- excuse me; using it as collateral or transfer. I'm sure that 's broader than simply sale.

25

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Your Honor, I've never seen

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 14
1	this injunction. I have not seen what it is in Delaware.
2	I don't know what it is. But I also know that these people
3	have been litigating in this Court in one form or another
4	and I am terrified as a lawyer. I don't come and bring
5	TRO's; I don't do that, because I think you can usually
6	work it out. But I know no other alternative here, and I
7	don't think that we are going to have a return date right
8	away because we're on the summer calendar. And I can't
9	come back here and say, "Oh, it's disappeared; what am I
10	going to do?"
11	He got 27 million dollars Segie got 27 million
12	dollars for the same identical shares. And I have nothing
13	here, and I'm afraid because Dahlia has control and
14	THE COURT: No, you have the stock.
15	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I don't have the stock. Dahlia
16	has the stock.
17	THE COURT: The stock is in the trust.
18	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay, but wait a minute. But
19	he will not agree with me; he will not voluntarily agree
20	that's why we're here that he will not sell, pledge,
21	hypothecate; he won't agree to it on behalf of his client.
22	So, what do I have? What's my other alternative?
23	THE COURT: Is that correct, counsel?
24	MR. MEISTER: Your Honor, respectfully
25	MR. SIEGEL-BAUM: I sent him a letter. It's

15 Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 attached to the pleadings. 1 2 THE COURT: Let me hear his response. MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay. 3 MR. MEISTER: I see no need to bind the trustee 4 in a hypothetical situation. We're perfectly prepared if 5 an offer is made to give notice to everyone. And we can 6 battle it out at that time if maybe someone offers to buy 7 it for ten cents, which is pretty easy to say no. 8 someone offers to buy it for skidillion (phonetic) dollars, 9 whatever skidillion means in this context, it will be a 10 different thing. 11 THE COURT: Counsel, what if there's an offer for 12 28 million dollars, they should turn it down? I know you 13 keep referring to the fact that 27 million was obtained on 14 the other purchase of the stock. 15 MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Your Honor, if there would be 16 an offer for 28 million dollars, and there was a 17 restraining order and the trustee came and it was okay that 18 there was something. That's not what's going to happen. 19 I sent Mr. Meister a letter on June 11. It's 20 annexed as Exhibit P. And it specifically says that I'm 21 very willing to have a meeting. That Dahlia must stipulate 22 in writing that she will not under any circumstances, and 2.3 to resolve our differences, sell, transfer or remove the 24 TRI shares from the Orly stock. Didn't do that. 25

Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09

In January 2009, Orly sent her mother a letter telling her it was her strong desire to leave that stock in her trust and leave it as it is. He won't agree. Why won't he agree? Doesn't that set off an alarm? It sure does with me.

THE COURT: He doesn't have to agree.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, I think --

THE COURT: I mean as a trustee, they don't have to agree. If there's any issue later on, then you know it will be dealt with accordingly. But just for purposes of ceasing these endless arguments and these TRO's, counsel, can we just simply state that you will give notice if there is any inclination to sell, transfer or dispose of the stock; that you'll give notice to the Court, as well as give notice to her?

MR. MEISTER: We can, Your Honor. In fact, predecessor counsel, after Judge Roth's decision wrote a demand letter on January 26 of this year asking if there were any -- promptly in the event, within two days -- I presume they mean two business days -- notify Orly any offer that we receive. And whereas, I didn't represent Ms. Genger then, I don't know that there was a response to that. It certainly seems reasonable. And indeed, if we receive an offer from anyone, it would seem to me the prudent thing for the trustee to do to give notice to

1	everyone who could conceivably be interested in the hopes
2	of seeing what's the highest and best offer, and assuming
3	it's acceptable to begin with. So, yes, we certainly would
4	give notice to Orly Genger's counsel and if the Court
5	likes, to the Court too.
6	THE COURT: Notice of any notice
7	MR. MEISTER: Of any offer.
8	THE COURT: of any office.
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Your Honor?
10	THE COURT: Yes.
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: The trust is not a party to the
12	Delaware litigation at all. It has nothing to do with it.
13	And we have no knowledge of it, but there's also a fear,
14	once again as Segie sold his stock with trust the stock
15	in his trust was sold. He'll try to buy his stock if
16	something happens. And the other thing is
17	THE COURT: But if he buys his stock for $28
18	million what's the problem?
19	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: He's not going to buy it for
20	$28 million.
21	THE COURT: But I'm just saying, what is the
22	problem? It has to be a reasonable offer. So, I don't see
23	what the issue is. I mean if they agree to give notice of
24	any offer or if they intend to sell, transfer or otherwise
25	dispose of the stock

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09
1	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Five days' notice, and I have
2	to come back and get a restraining order?
3	THE COURT: No, you don't have to come back to
4	get a retraining order. Use the telephone. Call the
5	court; call him. I mean you don't have to continually make
6	a motion. It's really not necessary. I was going to say
7	ten days' notice.
8	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, he said five days'
9	notice.
10	THE COURT: I know, but I was going to say
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: But the other thing is
12	MR. MEISTER: Actually, the other predecessor's
13	counsel requested two days' notice, but
14	THE COURT: Right. Which is
15	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, I wouldn't well, I'm
16	not predecessor's counsel, and I wouldn't ask for two days'
17	notice. I would say if you want me to be able to do my
18	job, I would like to have the ability with the time to do
19	my job.
20	THE COURT: So, do you want five days' notice or
21	ten days' notice?
22	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: No, I want ten. I don't want
23	five. The other thing is, can I have the right to renew
24	this application?
25	THE COURT: Renew what application?

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 19
1	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: The application for the TRO?
2	Can I renew this
3	THE COURT: Why do we need that now?
4	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, let's put it this way,
5	I'm making a hypothetical; I don't know what's going to
6	happen, but let's just say that there's this litigation in
7	Delaware, whatever happens, and someone decides that Segie
8	is going to buy this asset, he's made an offer for $2.2
9	million. Or is going to say, "Look, I get this asset and
10	you're free on the note that your trust owes to DNK and
11	TPR, because I'm going to use this as collateral; I'm going
12	to buy it up for nothing. Okay. So
13	MR. MEISTER: Respectfully, that would be an
14	offer of which we would have to give notice.
15	THE COURT: Right.
16	MR. MEISTER: I think it's pretty hypothetical.
17	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I don't think it's hypothetical
18	because of what's happened in the past.
19	THE COURT: But it's still an offer. It's still
20	an offer and you would be given notice on the offer.
21	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I'm given notice as a
22	beneficiary, but I am going to have to come in and stop
23	Dahlia from taking that unfair offer because I'm not the
24	trustee; I don't represent the trustee. So, I'm going to
25	have make another application.

What I am suggesting -- and this is just because I think it's prudent -- I think that the onus on Dahlia to say I'll hold onto the stock for now, and to agree to the restraints. Like I was very surprised that Mr. Meister did not stipulate to this while we tried to resolve our differences in a way that we could take care of things; totally ignored my June 11 letter; and even in this Court, he's saying that he never got that. He's not acknowledging the letter, which I sent him after the meeting.

THE COURT: Counsel, go back to your point. What is the point?

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: My point is, is I don't think that my client is protected since she has a trust, which is set up for her benefit and her children's benefit without a restraining order on this stock until this is resolved before a court as to what is happening.

THE COURT: What is resolved?

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I think we have to get my removal proceeding; I think I need some discovery done.

THE COURT: Most definitely. Most definitely. You move for that in the order to show cause.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: She's wasted this asset -THE COURT: Counselor, I wasn't -- I was just making a comment.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Oh, okay.

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 21
1	THE COURT: I was just making a comment
2	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I'm sorry.
3	THE COURT: that you move for it in the order
4	to show cause. Now, you'd have to file separate papers
5	moving for the removal.
6	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, yeah.
7	THE COURT: Or we can convert it.
8	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, I have it in the
9	petition.
10	THE COURT: Or we can convert it.
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: It's in my petition.
12	THE COURT: Right.
13	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: It is in my petition.
14	THE COURT: Okay.
15	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: But the thing is I don't know
16	if she wants a hearing; I have to go through the hearing.
17	THE COURT: Yes.
18	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: We have to have some discovery.
19	In the meantime, this asset is all that I think is there
20	now.
21	THE COURT: Yes.
22	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: And I think that I need to
23	preserve that asset because I think her conduct has been
24	whether or not it's self-dealing, the fact that she has

2	THE COURT: I understand your position, counsel.
3	And what we're going to do is as stated, that counsel has
4	to notify you within ten days where there's an offer, okay?
5	Or where there's an offer made or a request for an offer of
6	the stock, or to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of
7	the stock. And otherwise dispose of would include what you
8	referred to as a pledge.
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Which I'm afraid of.
10	THE COURT: I know your fears, okay? So, that's
11	why I'm going to say otherwise dispose of settle,
12	transfer, otherwise dispose of. They have to notify you
13	within ten days.
14	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: And notify by hand. Okay, by
15	hand.
16	THE COURT: What do you mean by hand?
17	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Deliver it to my office by hand
18	on the day. That's when the ten days start, when we
19	receive it. Do not put it in the mail. I don't want it in 20	the mail.
21	THE COURT: Okay.
22	MR. MEISTER: Respectfully, could we do it by
23	overnight courier?
24	THE COURT: You can do it by yeah, I think you
25	should do it by next day delivery. You could do it by next

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 24
1	THE COURT: Okay, now in terms of your other
2	issues, counsel, in terms of the removal and what is it?
3	It's just the removal, is that the only other issue?
4	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I have removal, I have
5	surcharge enforce, I have replacement trust; the usual in a
6	removal proceeding.
7	THE COURT: Well, the appointment of Michael
8	Groman, that goes along with the removal?
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yes.
10	THE COURT: Okay. So, then you'd have to this
11	is converted, and then you'd have to go through discovery
12	on these issues.
13	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, can we set up a discovery
14	schedule today?
15	THE COURT: That's what we're doing now.
16	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay, good.
17	THE COURT: That's what we're going to do now.
18	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay.
19	MR. MEISTER: May I hopefully request that we not
20	go over the same grounds that Judge Roth went over?
21	THE COURT: Yeah.
22	MR. MEISTER: Because many of the arguments that
23	we've heard here this morning were dealt with in Judge
24	Roth's opinion.
25	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I disagree. They were not

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 25
1	dealt with. What Judge Roth said is we need more discovery
2	here. Because she said that there
3	THE COURT: Right. We need
4	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: was no document evidence.
5	THE COURT: Right.
6	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: That's what she said.
7	THE COURT: We need more, which I'm assuming that
8	we had some. So, we need more.
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I don't think we had
10	THE COURT: Not that we're going to re-live the
11	entire litigation.
12	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Right. And also
13	THE COURT: Okay?
14	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: hopefully through this
15	litigation I don't have to bring a 2102 proceeding, I can
16	get it through discovery here.
17	THE COURT: You do what you have to do.
18	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yeah.
19	THE COURT: Okay. So, what is it that you
20	believe that you'll be able to
21	(Off the record.)
22	MR. MEISTER: I would point out if you're talking
23	about
24	THE COURT: Logistically we're trying to figure
25	out how to get it on the calendar and how to do the removal.

MR. MEISTER: If this is to be vivified somehow,

I would point out there's a jurisdictional defect and that they haven't named the remainderman.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: The remaindermen are unborn.

And the trust can be distributed completely. I mean I -
(Cross-talk.)

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Your Honor, can I just point out one thing to you and I don't mean to belabor a point, but when the TPR shares were sold, no notice -- even though you know Mrs. Genger had notice -- no notice was given to Orly. There was publication, I understand that's what could be done. But no one -- even though Dahlia had knowledge of this -- nobody gave Orly any notice that she was loosing an asset of her trust.

And they knew where she lived. I mean it's her daughter. She knew where she lived, and she could have done it. And once again, I don't want to get in the same - the secretiveness has been a problem. And I just hope that you know what we're doing here is that I'm not going to end up with ten days with something that's a done deal. And it seems to me that this is very problematic.

And I know I'm belaboring a point, and I know I'm being the kind of lawyer that every Judge hates. But I do feel that this is a really urgent problem because of what has happened in the past. And I think that the discovery is going to show that because remember this wasn't discovery that was done in the prior proceeding.

MR. MEISTER: Your Honor, I don't under stand this because in Judge Roth's opinion at Page 6, and it's buried in the order to show cause, is Exhibit J; she expressly says that it does not appear to be correct that the TPR shares were an asset of the trust. The TPR shares were pledge to a note to secure a note.

At one point it was an attempt to get rid of the note that was rescinded and it was rescinded in part because Ms. Orly Genger took the position that the note shouldn't have been transferred. So, she knew about the note. In fact the moving papers say that there was a ten year note -- I think it's $8 million. And it was supposed to be paid annually, and it wasn't paid annually.

Now, Mrs. Genger was not the holder of the note. The brother is controlling an entity to which held the note, and to which the TPR shares were pledged. He exercised his right as a security party. I don't know somewhere in the papers here it's saying Mrs. Genger as trustee should have done something. But I know what she could have done.

Orly Genger had previously acknowledged the existence of this note. The note hadn't been paid. So, I don't know why this gives counsel concern in any event. It doesn't relate to the TRI shares which are the significant assets -- which always were the significant assets of the trust and now the sole issue of the trust. And Your Honor has already indicated you're going to give directions, then we notify them if there's any offer to do in effect anything with those shares.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Your Honor, there's one misrepresentation that's been made here. It is true, the trust each owned 48 percent of DNK, and they had an indirect interest of 23.5 percent in TPR. And so they did have an ownership interest in those 240 shares. So, even though counsel feels there was no interests, there was an interest. And that was it. And it's now gone. It's gone.

MR. MEISTER: It's not counsel feels, it's what Judge Roth wrote, quote from Page 6, namely that the trust interest in TPR -- she says the premise of the application, namely that the trust interest in TPR would enable the trustee to investigate or seek relief from TPR, does not appear to be correct. And then she goes --

THE COURT: Does not appear to be correct. I mean obviously it's something that has to be litigated; it's something that has to be determined.

MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: And it was based upon prior papers that the judge had before her.

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 29
1	MR. MEISTER: I thought Judge Roth determined it,
2	but
3	THE COURT: I don't know, reading the decision,
4	I'm not really sure that there was that determination.
5	However, we're not going to litigate it now, because I
6	don't know. And there's nothing before me that tells me
7	whether it is or is not.
8	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Well, I just would like to
9	point out it was based on prior papers that were filed with
10	the Court that (inaudible) exactly explained the ownership
11	quite accurately.
12	THE COURT: I don't know.
13	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yeah.
14	THE COURT: Okay. So, then we have to calendar
15	this for August 5; for responsive papers by August 5. It
16	will be on the calendar on that date. And then we'll do
17	the discovery.
18	MR. MEISTER: Do the discovery at that date?
19	THE COURT: No. We can set the discovery
20	schedule now.
21	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Let's set it now, please.
22	THE COURT: So, when is it that now, you filed
23	a demand for discovery, counsel? Did you send a letter?
24	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I sent the letter. That's what
25	I did at the start, because I was going to bring a 2102

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 30
1	proceeding.
2	THE COURT: Okay.
3	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: So, that's what I did.
4	MR. MEISTER: And I answered the letter. Most of
5	the things she asked about are non-existents. She wants to
6	know about the dividends that were paid. There were
7	dividends. I stated that.
8	THE COURT: Okay.
9	MR. MEISTER: But she can serve a document
10	demand; she can serve whatever she wants.
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: You know what, I'll make it a
12	demand for discovery and inspection. I can turn my letter
13	into that in a week. That's not a problem.
14	THE COURT: Well, that's what I was asking. You
15	don't have to do that. That's fine. So, can you then
16	let's see; file a discovery demand by the 20 th of August?
17	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay. And that's the
18	deposition notices too, right?
19	THE COURT: Yes. And then you think that you'd
20	be able to conclude discovery by September? Or would you
21	need more time?
22	MR. MEISTER: By the end of September, Your
23	Honor?
24	THE COURT: By the end?
25	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I think we need more time

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 31
1	because we have to take depositions.
2	THE COURT: October?
3	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Can we do November 15?
4	THE COURT: Excuse me?
5	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Can we do November 15 because
6	I'm a little concerned I might need some third-party
7	discovery.
8	THE COURT: Okay. So, now you recognize then
9	that nothing would occur most probably until January? I
10	thought there was this urgency.
11	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Okay. Well, there is an
12	urgency, but s long as you have given me you're going to
13	give an order today saying that counsel is are you going
14	to write an order saying that counsel will sign a
15	stipulation saying that we'll get ten days notice?
16	THE COURT: Not a stipulation. I don't think
17	well, I don't know, do you want to do it by stipulation? I
18	was just going to do an order.
19	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: I'd like an order if we can
20	have an order.
21	THE COURT: Yeah, I was just going to do an
22	order.
23	MR. MEISTER: An order is satisfactory.
24	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yes. And then at least I have
25	the order to protect me that I can run back here if I need

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 32
1	to
2	THE COURT: Right.
3	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: based upon the notice.
4	THE COURT: Right. Don't run back. I don't want
5	to see you back. Okay, so you know, then August 20
6	you're going to file your discovery demand. Do you believe
7	you'd be able to complete discovery by November 16 is the
8	Monday?
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: 16th.
10	THE COURT: Okay. And then we can do a
11	conference I guess we'd have to do a conference then.
12	It looks like December 1 or December 4.
13	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Let's make it December 1.
14	THE COURT: That's a Tuesday, okay? So, we'll do
15	a conference
16	MR. MEISTER: 10:00 A.M.?
17	THE COURT: Well, actually that's a calendar day.
18	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Oh, that's bad, right?
19	(Cross-talk.)
20	THE COURT: December 2, then? We'll just do a
21	conference?
22	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: That's a Wednesday?
23	THE COURT: Yes.
24	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: That's fine.
25	THE COURT: Is that okay?
	AAA ELECTRONIC SOUND REPORTERS

	Estate of Arie Genger - 7/1/09 33
1	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yes.
2	THE COURT: And then on that date we will set a
3	date for the hearing and the trial, okay?
4	MR. MEISTER: Is that ten o'clock, Your Honor?
5	THE COURT: Yes. Okay, so you'll file your
6	discovery demands or whatever if you want to convert your
7	letter to such. I would probably I think you should
8	probably do a more in depth discovery demand by August 20?
9	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Yes.
LO	THE COURT: And then we'll complete the l1	discovery, including depositions by November 16. And then
12	our conference date is December 2 at 10:00 A.M.
13	August 5, this motion will be calendared and we
14	need the responsive papers by that date, okay?
15	MR. MEISTER: Is that an appearance?
16	THE COURT: I was going to say an appearance is
17	not necessary as long as you file your papers before that
18	date. I really don't need you here. Okay.
19	And then if there are any issues that crop up in 20	the interim, then you can just notify Ms. Santamarina and
21	she'll deal with them accordingly. And then we'll issue
22	the order today and get it out to you.
23	MS. SIEGEL-BAUM: Thank you very much, Your
24	Honor/
25	THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?
